Council Asked to Lift N. Main Ban

FOLK BACK ZONE ROW ACCUSED

Circulate Petition Urging Amendment of City Ordinance

WOMAN DEFENDANT IN CASE NOT ARRESTED?

Status of Proceedings to Halt Building Declared To Be Puzzle

Extension of the business zone north on Main street from Tenth street to the city limits became a possibility today, when residents of the street began circulating a petition asking the city council to amend the recently adopted zoning ordinance. The petition will be presented to the council tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at an adjoined meeting held for the purpose of acting on the instrument.

Circulation of the petition was the result of a more or less heated session of the council last night, when Edwin Winterer, attorney of Los Angeles, representing John O. Haley, owner of the property on the northeast corner of Main street and Washington avenue, on which the latter proposes the erection of a business block, urged the council to rescind its action in revoking the building permit issued to Haley October 2, 1922, or to take such other step as would make it possible for Haley to proceed with his building program.

Complaint Withdrawn
Incidentally, it developed that Mary Haley, wife of Haley, against whom a complaint was issued on a charge of erecting a building without a permit, had not been served with a warrant and had never been arrested. It was imagined that William White, who drawn his complaint, had withdrawn his complaint.

Attorney Winterer declared that the council by denying Haley the right to proceed with his building virtually had taken his property away from him. The attorney pointed to the fact that at the time of the purchase of the property by Haley there were no restrictions against a building such as is proposed for the corner. He asserted that in its present status the property has no permanency—that is, it is prospective business property and with the restriction as obtaining at the present time the owner would not be justified in erecting a residence, because in time, in the opinion of the attorney, the corner would be within the business zone.

Attorney Accredited
A group of owners of property on North Main supported Haley and his attorney in their efforts to have the restriction removed from the corner. Points made by the attorney were roundly applauded.

M. Nisson, who owns the west falls off a load of bricks which he is delivering for a builder, or a load of goods which he is delivering for a merchant, and is injured, his expenses and a share of his wages, are paid by his employer, or by the employer's insurance company, while if he falls off a load of the farmer's hay he pays his own expenses and goes without wages.

There is only one reason for this difference. That is that the employing farmers have votes enough in the Legislature to exempt themselves from the responsibility which the law places on all other employers. The farm wage lien bill will pass whenever the employing farmers want it to pass. The farm laborer has such rights as the employing farmers want him to have. All other laborers have such rights as society generally grants them.

FREEHOLDER VOTE
INTEREST SLIGHT
That voters of Santa Ana were little interested today in the election to select fifteen men to frame a charter for Santa Ana, was evidenced by the light vote cast up to 1 p. m.

A visit to precincts 8, at Hickey and Ross streets, and 9, at the Jefferson school, at that time, discovered that in the former only eleven of 1067 voters had cast ballots. At
No. 9, with a registration of 779 voters, only thirteen had voted.

It was assumed that the same ratio was maintained throughout the other ten special precincts arranged for the election by the consolidation of several county precincts into one special precinct.

PLAN EXTENSION OF INTERSTATE HIGHWAY
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Extension of the Pacific coast interstate paved highway from Crescent City, Calif., to Chilco, on the Oregon boundary, was agreed on today by

COURTHOUSE, BASTROP, La., Jan. 9.—The black masks worn by the hooded men who kidnaped and murdered Watt Daniel and Thomas F. Richardson were identified at the investigation today by James T. Norsworthy, former official of the Ku Klux Klan, as "the terror mask of the Klan."

Norsworthy declared the black hood was part of the regalia of the Klan. He said the white hood was worn in meetings and ceremonials but that when the Klansmen were on the "war path" they wore the black hood.

A reign of terror has resulted from the operations of the Klan, Norsworthy declared.

Norsworthy, former captain of the Klan in Mer Rouge, identified also the "vigilance committee of

Mrs. Thompson and Bywaters were found guilty after one of the most dramatic murder trials in British court history of conspiring against the former's husband and effecting his death by stabbing on October 4.

Norsworthy also testified that nine members of the present grand jury, four out of five of the jury commissioners, Sheriff Fred Car-

District Attorney David Garrett, were Klansmen.

He also declared that Captain J.
K. Skipwith, Cyclops of the Klan, had ordered him to take some people to the Arkansas state line from Mer Rouge, flog them and send them from the state.

Norsworthy declared Dr. B. M.
McKoin, former Mer Rouge mayor,
"Pink" Kirkpatrick and Tommy Higgins were the three Klansmen who had taken Addie Mayo Ham-

in Mer Rouge and sent her to Little Norsworthy told of how scores of automobiles were held up by the cars of the mob blocking the road and how women and children were frightened by the maskers when Watt Daniels and Richards were kidnaped.

Attorney General Cocco lowered his voice and leaned forward.

you a Klansman?"

The witness hesitated a moment.
"I joined them about a year ago

"Why did you resign? Are not their principles and ideals right?

Here's Brief Summary Of Policies Of Gov. Richardson

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9.—Following are briefly summarized the policies of Governor Friend W. Richardson, as outlined in his inaugural address to the state legislature today:

Determination to wreck the "great political machine" which, he charged, has cost the people of the state millions of dollars.
Abolition of all unnecessary offices and commissions.

Complete re-organization of the state highway commission to put it in the hands of "skilled road builders."

Fewer and better laws.
Strengthening of the state civil service.

Expedition of the trial of court cases.

Ban on lobbying.

Protection of the industrial accident commission.

Educational program which will uphold California's reputation as the center of learning.

All possible aid to the state's agriculturists.

Ornamental exclusion.

Full justice to veterans of all wars.

DAUGHERTY CLEARED IN HOUSE QUIZ

Committee Adopts Report Ex-onerating Attorney General Against Solon's Charges.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The house judiciary committee today adopted a report exonerating Attorney General Daugherty from the impeachment charges filed by Representative Keller, Minnesota.

At the same time the committee decided to leave to a decision of the house the question of whether Keller shall be punished for his refusal to appear before the judiciary committee and give testimony.

Representative Ben Thomas, Democrat, Kentucky, opposed the committee's action and declared he would make a minority report to the house advocating an impeachment trial for Daugherty.

$350,000 FIRE LOSS AT TWO L. A. PLANTS

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Fire damage estimated at $350,000 was done early today in two heavy blazes.

A short circuit in the Southern California Edison distributing plant at Eagle Rock canyon did damage estimated at $250,000, while a blaze in the canning factory of the Pepper Fruit company destroyed the building with estimated damage of $100,000.

The fire in the Edison plant was caused by a short circuit, which exploded an oil lightning deflector.
The plant was the largest in the west, and was erected at a cost of about $3,000,000. It distributes the majority of the power from the Edison company's Big Creek plant.

The fire caused the power to be cut off, tying up all street car traffic in Los Angeles for several hours.

Cars were put into operation again shortly after 8 a. m.

"30" BULLETIN

But one change was made in the appointees of the board of supervisors, as the lists were announced this afternoon. Frank Lamar was placed in charge of the county garage, succeeding O. Summerfield, who had been serving in that capacity. Others, reappointed, were: D. H. Patrick, justice of the peace, bee inspector; J. E. Wal-grave, aid commissioner; C. H.
Wilkins, veterinarian; H. E. Zai-ser, county farm and hospital superintendent; F. W. Slabaugh, purchasing agent; W. E. Adkinson, fire and game warden; G. M.
Benedict, gardener; Charles Carillo, interpreter; R. E. Larter, custodian of the park at Westminster.

The following committees were chosen: Hospital, William Schu-macher; court house and county jail, S. H. Finley; good roads, George Jeffrey; advertising, T. B.
Talbert; county farm, N. T. Edwards; detention home, Finley; forestry, Schmacher; county garage, Jeffrey.

LAY CORNERSTONE OF SCIENCE CHURCH

The cornerstone of the new Christian Science church, now under construction at the southwest corner of Main and Tenth streets, today was in position, with authorized literature of the organization and Christian Science periodicals enclosed, following laying of the stone yesterday with brief services.

Participating in the exercises were Miss N. Opal Davis, Miss Margaret Von Essen, Mrs. Alice Ober, Mrs. F. T. Hoffman, Alex. P. Nelson, R. L. Bisby, J. C. Horton, C. G. Strock, Mrs. H. S. Kittle and Dr. W. A. Flood, composed the board of directors, the building committee and the first and second readers.

As First Reader Strock read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Eddy Baker, and Mrs. Kittle, as second reader, read from the Bible.

The cornerstone bears the inscription, "First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1922" and was placed in the foundation fronting on Main street.

Papers containing the names of the local members, or of any of the officials, were not placed in the stone.

It is expected that the new edifice will be completed about June 1.

LEAVE 'HOME,' SEE MOVIE AND RETURN

The escape of three boys from the juvenile home last night today was revealed as an escape. The boys returned of their own volition. The trio could not resist going down town to a show last night. They stole out through the window and down the fire escape while Mrs. S. E. Hutchins, matron of the home, listened knowingly down stairs. Unable to catch the boys before they left the property, she reported their escape to the police.

After "seeing the sights and a show," the boys returned to the home, entering by the window. "I had thought of locking the window," said Mrs. Hutchins today, "but I thought the boys would come back. Then if they found the window locked they would be tempted to make good their escape. I have thought of locking the boys in their rooms, but I am afraid of what might happen should a fire occur in this frame building. So rather than depend on locks which in an emergency might cause disaster I trust to the honesty of the boys."

RECORDS SHATTERED AS MONCRIEF RULES BASTILLE FIRST DAY

Last night the county entertained 186 prisoners, the largest in the history of the jail. Despite the fact that the number enrolled there has been constantly increasing lately, last night's record was three greater than at any previous time in the history of the county. Moncrief and his assistant, Joseph Irvine, were busy almost all night booking and frisking the menas officers brought them in. Fullerton contributed nine vagrants, adding materially to the total.

LOUISIANA TOT WILL ARRIVE HERE SOON

The minds of those who were concerned for the safety of Eunice Willis, 8-year-old daughter of E. L. Willis, who is awaiting trial on embezzlement charges, were set at ease today, when it was learned that her delay in arriving at Los Angeles, was due to the fact that Homer, La., where she has been living, is some distance from a railroad terminal.

When a fund was collected from prisoners at the jail, and from charitable Santa Anas, and was wired to the station agent in Louisiana, it was expected that the child would start immediately to rejoin her mother, who is in Santa Ana. Under those circumstances she would have arrived in Los Angeles a week ago last Sunday.

When the child did not reach Los Angeles, concern was felt. Attempts to trace her along the route failed, and it was not until yesterday that it was learned that she was in Homer last Sunday, and that because of the fact that Homer is far in the rural districts, the ticket had not reached her then.

She will, however, be placed on a train, and will probably arrive in Santa Ana by the end of this week, her mother stated today.

POLICE HALT YOUTH ON 'FRISCO TO L. A. ROLLER SKATE TRIP

SAN JOSE, Calif., Jan. 9.—William Calhoun, aged 10, was sent back to his home in San Francisco today, his dreams of skating to Los Angeles cruelly shattered.

He skated into the arms of an officer here yesterday and was held for his parents, who reside in San Francisco.

William pleaded to be permitted to continue his roller skate run to Southern California.

"Skated all the way from San Francisco," he told officers.

COLLEGE PLAYERS REHEARSING SHOW

FULLERTON, Jan. 9.—Great interest in college dramatics has been shown this year according to a statement by Dr. Harry Young, drama coach of Fullerton Junior college. Over fifty tried out for places in the cast in the coming production of Henry Arthur Jones' comedy, "The Maneuvers of Jane."

This is one of Jones' best efforts and is built around a simple minded member of the English nobility. How one girl manages to escape marrying him, and how another captures him as a matrimonial prize, provide the basis of an amusing and hilarious plot. Reuben Harris is stage manager; Virgil Shaw, business manager; Stewart Gates, advertising manager; Alfred Knight, electrician.

Added attractions for the evening are the high school orchestra, and the faculty quartet, composed of Glenn H. Lewis, H. H. Young, Dr. McManis and David Wright.

ARREST MAN TO FACE CHARGES OF GIRL, 16

Librado Alanzo, arrested at Newport Beach last night by Sheriff Sam Jernigan and deputies, today faced arraignment before Justice J. B. Cox on serious charges, involving Altagracia Garcia.

The Garcia girl, who is but 16 years of age, was the complaining witness.

MANY HEAR EXPERT'S TALK ON OIL FINDING

Where oil is found and why, was explained to members and friends of the El Modena farm center last night by Harry R. Johnson, geologist. Johnson illustrated his talk with a number of lantern slides. More than 300 persons were present, according to W. N. Cummings, who was recently elected chairman of the center, but who declared today he regretted his inability to act. "Johnson's talk," said Cummings, "was splendid. The slides he used in illustrating his remarks were some of the best I have seen. It was a thorough education in the science of oil findings as practiced by the geologist of today."

$10,000,000 FORD PLANT FOR ST. PAUL

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 9.—Henry Ford will build a $10,000,000 manufacturing and assembling plant in St. Paul this year, representatives of the Ford Motor company announced here today.

OFFER NAVAL BASE WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—A bill offering a naval base to the government by the city of Alameda, Calif., was introduced in the house today by Representative Macclafferty of California. The tract would cover 5340 acres and would be furnished to the government without cost.

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 9.—Following a terrific explosion, the fire department was called to a row of shacks near the factory district. The shacks were in flames. One man was found burned to death and several other bodies are believed to be inside. One man was taken to a hospital.

HOLDS GERMANY IN DEFAULT ON DEBTS

less people, declared Chancellor Cuno today in an interview with American correspondents. He condemned France's course and simultaneously renewed Germany's offer of a peace pact.

"We cannot meet force with force, but in the complete agreement of the German people and in their fullest resolution, we can do this:

VIEW CRISIS AS SIMILAR TO THAT OF 1914

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—With the European situation described in diplomatic quarters as similar to the crisis in 1914 that developed the World war, the United States government today considered recall of the American troops of occupation from the Rhine. The French move into the Ruhr and the advisability of bringing home American troops as recently requested by a senate solution were expected to be the foremost subject to be discussed between President Harding and his cabinet in today's meeting.

Whether orders are issued within the next few days for withdrawal of the American forces in Germany, the government has made it clear that under no circumstances will they become involved in any trouble resulting from the French seizure of Germany's principal industrial region.

OFFICERS SCOOP UP HOOCH FROM STREET FOR EVIDENCE USE

Armed with evidence, scooped up from the pavement in a bucket, officers today confronted A. R. Jenkins, Orange, in Recorder J. W. Nigle's court here. Jenkins pleaded guilty to transporting liquor, and was fined $200 and given a suspended sentence of 90 days.

City Marshal M. E. Jemison and a deputy apprehended Jenkins just as he was about to deliver two gallons of liquor at a residence in Orange, they were prepared to testify. When Jenkins saw them approaching, he smashed the bottles, they claim. Jemison, however, seized a bucket, and salvaged about a pint of the fluid, which was held as evidence against the defendant.

SUSPECT MAN SHOT HERE OF FORGERY

While Fred Mason, arrested last Saturday only after he had been brought down by a well aimed shot from the revolver of Special Officer Fred Parker, who was attempting to hold him on suspicion of short change activity, was at the Orange county hospital under the care of a physician, City Marshal L. C. Rogers today was attempting to identify him as the man who had been engaged in similar activity in other Santa Ana stores.

Rogers was to take a man and woman clerk from Chandler's music store to the hospital this afternoon, in the hope that they might identify Mason as the man who "pulled" a short change stunt on them last week.

Deputy Sheriff Herman Zabel, head of the county bureau of identification, was gathering together the threads of suspicion in an effort to ascribe worthless check activities to the man. A strong clue leads to the belief that Mason was responsible for a check for $34, worked on the Sam Stein Stationery store here about a week ago, Zabel said.

Meanwhile Mason's condition was rapidly improving, and it was expected that he would be arraigned within two days.

EIGHT PERSONS AID MASSACRE SUSPECT

(By United Press Leased Wire)

MARION, Ill., Jan. 9.—Eight witnesses today testified that Joe Carnaghi, one of the five men on trial for alleged participation in the Herrin massacre, "was not at the scene of the rioting on June 22."

All told of seeing Carnaghi at various times working around his home the morning of the massacre. Dr. O. F. Shipman, star prosecution witness, had previously identified Carnaghi as one of the men who marched through Herrin leading six mine guards to the cemetery where they were shot down by a firing squad.

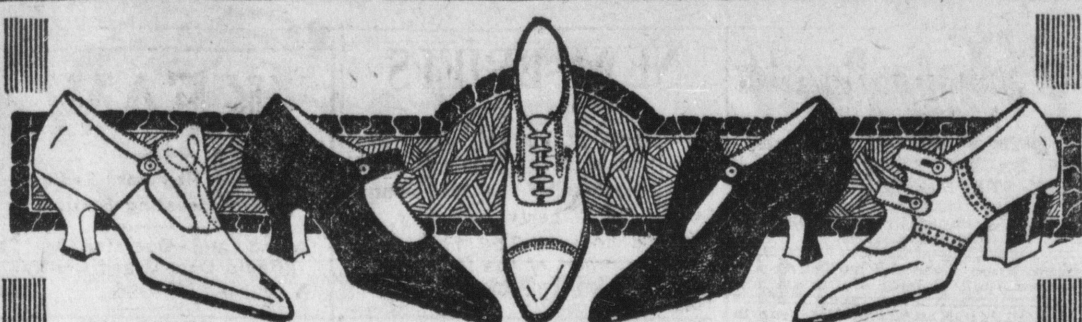

LAY BATTERY TO MAN HELD HERE ON THEFT

R. E. (Red) Tibbets, who attained notoriety several months ago when he was arrested in connection with the burglary here of the residence of Ellis Rhodes, was in the toils of the law again today.

This time he was arrested on the complaint of his wife, who charged him with battery. He was to be arraigned before City Recorder W. F. Heathman late today, it was expected.

WILL ORGANIZE

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9.—A committee of 100 citizens, all motorists, will shortly be organized to report all traffic violations here. The first and second violations will be reported by card to the state automobile association.

GOLD RIVER BEDS MOUNTS TO MILLIONS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9.—Two billion dollars in gold, a treasure greater by a quarter of a billion than that extracted from California mines by the hardy Forty-Niners, is easily recoverable, according to the state bureau of mines, and can be secured from the river beds of California rivers without interfering with other industries.

Such a statement would seem wildly improbable were it not for the authority given by the government agency that has made the investigation.

Overlooked the Best
Great as were the fortunes laboriously wrested from the earth during the days of the gold-rush, the gold those adventurers let slip through their fingers was even more valuable. Their haste to get the more available gold led them to use wasteful methods which recovered only a small portion of the yellow metal.

Hydraulic mining, as it was practiced by the first miners to try it in the state, recovered from the earth the coarser gold while the fine dust was carried down to the rivers with the silt and fine earth washed from the hills. This earth filled the river beds so rapidly that rivers were often forced from their channels and did great damage to the lands they overflowed.

Under the plan proposed by Fletcher Hamilton, state mineralogist, the enormous riches in the alluvial deposits in the river beds is easily recoverable by methods now well understood.

Benefit Whole State
Mr. Hamilton further declares that the operation of recovering the gold would indirectly benefit the state by cleaning the river beds, making the rivers navigable for great distances, and preventing annual deluges and flood damage. He proposes the building of retaining dams that would keep mine tailings from filling the river channels in the future and that would, at the same time, conserve the flood waters giving protection against winter floods while furnishing water storage for summer irrigation.

Mr. Hamilton concludes his report with the declaration that "This is a development project which, if carried to a successful conclusion, would be of immeasurable benefit to every citizen of the state, not only for the time being, but for the next hundred years."

DISTANCE FLIGHT HALTED
CABEDELLO, Brazil, Jan. 9.—Following a mishap, the seaplane Sampaio Correia II, on its way from New York to Rio Janeiro, was forced to halt here for repairs. The jump is to Pernambuco.

NEWS BRIEFS

Members of the fair board will meet tomorrow at 4 p. m. to further organize plans of the 1923 county fair. R. D. Flaherty, secretary, announced today. The board will hear the report of the fair committee which waited upon the supervisors late today in relation to the proposed means of financing a permanent county fair grounds with the aid of county funds.

The cast for the junior class play at the high school is as follows: Norman Pixley, Harold Smith, Ray Minor, John Harper, Lloyd Redmond, Randolph Bell, Donald Fletcher, Ethel Smallwood, and Mable Pruitt. The play, "The Hottentott," is to be given early in the spring under the direction of Ernest Crozier Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lincoln, of Waterloo, Ia., have come to Santa Ana and are staying at 1015 West Fifth street. They are eager to find some of their friends here, they said.

Building permits issued today brought the total for the month and year to 49 permits, calling for a total of $119,207 in construction, according to the records of W. S. Decker, building inspector.

Fifteen members of the Junior Hi Y club met last night for dinner, a hearty chorus of their "ice-breaker" songs and listened to a talk on "Habit," by Professor Ed Hummel of the junior college. T. P. McKee, secretary, announced to the next two meetings. The first, two weeks hence, is scheduled to be held at Huntington Beach in the form of a reunion and a plunge. The second special meeting probably will be held with the Senior Hi Y.

Word was received today that the form bureau office that H. E. Wahlberg, farm advisor, and W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, of Orange county had arrived safely at Berkeley for the farm advisors' conference being held there this week.

The annual meeting and banquet of the executive board of Orange County Council, Boy Scouts of America, scheduled for Tuesday evening, January 23, will be held at St. Ann's Inn, D. Eymann Huff, president, announced today. R. V. von Klien-Smidt, president of U. S. C., will be the principal speaker. Others who will participate in the program include Mrs. Hazel Hummel, Ernest Crozier Phillips, male quartette of the Orange County Choral union, and S. C. Hartman, the latter of Fullerton.

Among the term trial jurors to be impaneled in federal court, Los Angeles, today, were N. T. Edwards, Orange; Samuel Nau, Tustin; and Albert Sifton, Fullerton. They will serve during the January term of the federal court.

Members of the First Presbyterian Brotherhood who were hungrily anticipating the dinner at the church tonight, were asked to restrain their appetites until Tuesday, January 16, as unavoidable causes arose for postponing the dinner until that date, when it will be held at 6:30 p. m.

The Full Gospel Assembly, which has been holding religious meetings at 902 West Fourth street, has had to vacate its quarters and for the present will hold cottage meetings, it was announced here today. It was understood that George H. Bunting contemplates the erection, within the next month, of a building on West Fourth street in which the members may hold meetings.

Because a quorum was not present the annual meeting of stockholders of the Home Mutual Building and Loan association of Santa Ana was not held here last night. Under the California law the present board of directors of the organization will hold over for another year. This board consists of E. B. Sprague, P. B. Beissel, George M. Kryhl, N. A. Beas, J. C. Horton, W. E. Winslow and R. S. Gregory. The board last night, re-elected its present officers for the coming year. These are P. G. Beissel, president; E. B. Sprague, vice-president; O. M. Robbins, secretary; Doris M. Robbins, assistant secretary and Harry L. Hanson, treasurer.

RADIO PROGRAM PLEASES FANS IN SO. CAL.

What was described as one of the most attractive programs ever broadcasted by KFAW, the Radio Den's big station operated by The Register, was that presented to the Southland's radio fans last night.

The program opened with a duet in Italian, "In This Hour So Solemn," by Verdi, sung by Earl Fraser, tenor, and Leon Eckles, baritone.

Then these two popular singers gave a duet from Puccini's "La Boheme."
Eckles sang "Mush On," by Rhys Herbert, and "Friend of Mine," by Sanderson. Fraser sang a solo from "Pagliacci," by Leoncavallo, and "Ave Marie," by Percy B. Kahn. Miss Ruth Armstrong played the piano accompaniment for the vocal numbers.

Miss Mabel Krause played two piano solos, "Shepherd's Hey," and "Scherzo," in B flat minor from the Chopin sonata.

R. R. Miller, county probation officer, spoke on the development of a parental home in Orange county.

The second special meeting probably will be held with the Senior Hi Y.

Word was received today that the form bureau office that H. E. Wahlberg, farm advisor, and W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, of Orange county had arrived safely at Berkeley for the farm advisors' conference being held there this week.

The annual meeting and banquet of the executive board of Orange County Council, Boy Scouts of America, scheduled for Tuesday evening, January 23, will be held at St. Ann's Inn, D. Eymann Huff, president, announced today. R. V. von Klien-Smidt, president of U. S. C., will be the principal speaker. Others who will participate in the program include Mrs. Hazel Hummel, Ernest Crozier Phillips, male quartette of the Orange County Choral union, and S. C. Hartman, the latter of Fullerton.

Among the term trial jurors to be impaneled in federal court, Los Angeles, today, were N. T. Edwards, Orange; Samuel Nau, Tustin; and Albert Sifton, Fullerton. They will serve during the January term of the federal court.

Members of the First Presbyterian Brotherhood who were hungrily anticipating the dinner at the church tonight, were asked to restrain their appetites until Tuesday, January 16, as unavoidable causes arose for postponing the dinner until that date, when it will be held at 6:30 p. m.

The Full Gospel Assembly, which has been holding religious meetings at 902 West Fourth street, has had to vacate its quarters and for the present will hold cottage meetings, it was announced here today. It was understood that George H. Bunting contemplates the erection, within the next month, of a building on West Fourth street in which the members may hold meetings.

Because a quorum was not present the annual meeting of stockholders of the Home Mutual Building and Loan association of Santa Ana was not held here last night. Under the California law the present board of directors of the organization will hold over for another year. This board consists of E. B. Sprague, P. B. Beissel, George M. Kryhl, N. A. Beas, J. C. Horton, W. E. Winslow and R. S. Gregory. The board last night, re-elected its present officers for the coming year. These are P. G. Beissel, president; E. B. Sprague, vice-president; O. M. Robbins, secretary; Doris M. Robbins, assistant secretary and Harry L. Hanson, treasurer.

Anaheim has formed a new boy scout troop under direction of a group of members of the Knights of Columbus lodge of Anaheim, Victor E. Teaney, scout executive of the Orange county council, Boy Scouts of America, announced here today.

Former Senator Frank P. Flint was the speaker at the Rotary club's weekly luncheon at St. Ann's Inn today. He was introduced by Chairman D. Eymann Huff.

H. B. White, for years associated with the E. K. Wood Lumber company, has come here from Los Angeles to manage the Santa Ana business of the firm, it was announced today. His family will follow soon. "I have already become a Santa Ana booster," he said. Operations at the firm's local yard will continue under the same plan as formerly, it was stated.

The opening banquet will be held at 8 p. m. For this, the charge will be $5 a plate. The program will include speeches by prominent men of the Fullerton district. Among those who will participate in the musical program will be Clarence Gustlin, of Santa Ana.

James—Noonday lunches.

Members of the fair board will meet tomorrow at 4 p. m. to further organize plans of the 1923 county fair. R. D. Flaherty, secretary, announced today. The board will hear the report of the fair committee which waited upon the supervisors late today in relation to the proposed means of financing a permanent county fair grounds with the aid of county funds.

The cast for the junior class play at the high school is as follows: Norman Pixley, Harold Smith, Ray Minor, John Harper, Lloyd Redmond, Randolph Bell, Donald Fletcher, Ethel Smallwood, and Mable Pruitt. The play, "The Hottentott," is to be given early in the spring under the direction of Ernest Crozier Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lincoln, of Waterloo, Ia., have come to Santa Ana and are staying at 1015 West Fifth street. They are eager to find some of their friends here, they said.

Building permits issued today brought the total for the month and year to 49 permits, calling for a total of $119,207 in construction, according to the records of W. S. Decker, building inspector.

U. S. BULB IMPORTS BAN IS TOLD HERE

For the double purpose of keeping out plant diseases and of stimulating growers in this country to propagate their own flowers, the United States has passed a law prohibiting the importation of certain bulbs, especially narcissi and daffodils. W. J. Vander Brugge, well known local gardener and nurseryman said today.

Vander Brugge, whom John Spykerman has recently joined as a partner, makes a specialty of supplying choice bulbs. At present they are doing only a retail business in these and in general nursery stock, but eventually they will enter also the wholesale trade, it was stated.

The firm name has been changed to the Main Nursery Company. It was formerly known as the Southside Nurseries. Vander Brugge and Spykerman have stocks on an acre of ground at the southwest corner of Main street and Chapman avenue and also on three acres between the W. L. Grubb place and Santiago creek, on Main street. At Main street and Chapman avenue they will soon open a show house, where all varieties of house plants, including ferns and begonias, will be on display.

"Now is the time to beautify your yard, to plant shrubbery and to acquire house plants," Vander Brugge said.

EXPECT SCORE TO AID IN BUILDING Y 'GYM'

Ralph Smedley, building secretary, and other officials of the Y. M. C. A., today were rushing final preparations for the work, scheduled to begin on the local "Y" site at the corner of Church and Syca more streets tomorrow afternoon, of erecting a temporary clubhouse.

At least a score of volunteer workers are expected to report for duty with saws and hammers and prepared to assist in the construction of a building that will house the business men's gymnasium until the new Y. M. C. A. structure is completed.

As soon as the temporary building is finished it will be used as headquarters for the Y. M. C. A., Smedley said.

SANITARY LEAGUE GAINING STRENGTH

With members of the Sanitary Development League of Southern California labeled in the public mind as plumbing concerns in whom confidence may be reposed without doubt, firms affiliated with that industry in every city in this end of the state are applying for a place on the membership roll. This is a direct result of the advertising campaign begun a little before Christmas by the League in Southern California newspapers. Planned for the indirect purpose of educating the public in the ideals and purposes of the League, the campaign has had the direct result of increasing its strength.

Careful inquiry into the reputation, responsibility and trustworthiness of more than a score of applicants for membership is now being made by the secretary, Henry Boynton. "Membership in the league is a certificate of character," he declares. "Every member stands back of every other member, and we are sure of every man before his name is put on the roster."

CHICAGO FIREMAN IN KU KLUX IS CHARGE

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Charges that one shift of a city fire engine company is composed entirely of members of the Ku Klux Klan were made before a city council committee investigating alleged activities of the Klan in connection with the city administration.

Firemen who are members of another shift of the same company made the charges. Committee members said if the charges were proved they would ask for the dismissal of five firemen.

MEMBERSHIP GROWS

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—A gain of 119,007 members during 1922, bringing the total membership to 4,593,640 for 1923, not including 269,685 non-resident members, was announced by the Methodist church in its official publication, the Methodist Year Book for 1923.

BARS KLAN FILMS

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Motion pictures of the Ku Klux Klan will not be permitted in Chicago theaters if they are considered propaganda according to a ruling of James W. Egan, assistant corporation counsel of Chicago. He ordered the final scenes of "The Invisible Empire" showing at a local theater, cut from the film.

POSTOFFICE BILL REPORTED
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Appropriations aggregating $554,614.191 for operation of the postoffice department during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1923, were provided in a bill reported to the house today by the appropriations committee. Revenues of the department for the fiscal year 1922 were $484,853,540, and operating expenses $545,668,941, leaving a deficit of $60,815,400.

CRITIC SAYS LLOYD FUNNIEST COMEDIAN OF SCREEN

Is Harold Lloyd, now appearing in his latest release, "Dr. Jack," at the West End theater, the screen's comedy king?
That is an interesting question and a question that James W. Dean, prominent syndicate writer and motion picture critic, knew would cause considerable comment. In fact, Dean began the controversy by syndicating a story through prominent newspapers throughout the country and thusly started the ball rolling. He wrote:

"The barber was talking as he wielded his razor. Valentino is a great actor, he thinks, but William Farnum is greater. And who is his favorite actor of all? Harold Lloyd. Does he think Lloyd better than Chaplin? 'I should say,' he answers. 'Chaplin is always the same. Lloyd is always different.'"

"In a theatre a flash on the screen announced the coming of Harold Lloyd in 'Dr. Jack.' Said one man to another near me: 'I'll have to see that. That fellow's the funniest guy in the world.'"

"The other man asked him if he thought he was funnier than Chaplin. 'He's got Chaplin skinned seven different ways,' he replied.

"In another theater the main title of a release is flashed on the screen. It says 'Harold Lloyd in 'Dr. Jack.' and before the opening scene is disclosed there is a round of applause. The only time I have witnessed such an occurrence was on the first night of the showing of 'The Three Musketeers' when Douglas Fairbanks was there in person."

"THE KENTUCKY DERBY" AT YOST TOMORROW

Do you hate to see a film play that is advertised as "a story of Kentucky" or some other particular place, and then see old familiar California scenery appearing on the screen? "The Kentucky Derby," the spectacular film coming to the Yost theater tomorrow, actually was made in Louisville and Lexington, under King Baggot's direction.

LET CONTRACT FOR DESERT ROAD WORK

HOLTVILLE, Jan. 9.—Rejoicing in this city among motorists is shared by the whole of Imperial Valley and other portions of the United States, the cause being the recent announcement of the awarding of the contract for the construction of fourteen miles of pavement between Holtville and Yuma, Ariz.

With the completion of this stretch of pavement there will remain only an eight-mile stretch of unpaved road between this city and the beginning of the plank road and a stretch of fifteen miles of unpaved road between the east end of the plank road across the candy country and Yuma.

The recent announcement of a new stretch of pavement to be built on the trail between Yuma and Phoenix will complete another gap in the great coast-to-coast trail. The new fourteen miles of pavement to be constructed will be but nine feet in width.

SPECIAL COINAGE IS PROPOSED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Coinage for circulation through the Los Angeles clearing house of special fifty-cent pieces commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the enunciation of the Monroe doctrine, would be authorized in a bill by Senator Johnson, republican, California, passed today by the senate.

NEW MEAT MARKET ON WEST FOURTH OPENING

A new meat market is to be opened at 902 West Fourth street tomorrow, with the proprietor, J. B. Hayes, in charge. Hayes has worked in various shops in Santa Ana and is now entering business for himself. New fixtures have been installed, and the shop is neat and attractive.

TO OPEN BIDS ON SCHOOL PROPERTY

Bids are to be opened at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow by the Santa Ana board of education for three lots on West Fifth street, formerly occupied by a school. The board has fixed $3,000 as the lowest amount it will accept for the lots. When bids were sought for the lots a month ago, no bid was submitted. F. L. Andrews said today that he was certain that bids would be submitted tomorrow.

Two lots on West Fourth street, adjoining the West Fifth lots, were sold by the board recently for $3,000.

When the school board meets tomorrow it is more than likely that proposals for building additions to three of the city schools will be discussed. While expressions from members of the board have not been obtained, it is understood that suggestions include the addition of two rooms to Franklin school on West Fourth, four rooms to McKinley school on West Third and two rooms to the new Lowell school on Flower street.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels just like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.—Adv.

PARENT-TEACHERS SELECT DOG FILM

GARDEN GROVE, Jan. 9.—The grammar school Parent-Teachers association held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon. Due to the fact that there was a good deal of business to take up the time, also because some of the speakers for the program were not present, the program was dis-pensated with and the afternoon was spent in planning things of benefit for the school.

A committee of Mrs. Lake, Miss Walker and Mrs. Kelsey were appointed to attend to buying milk and having it delivered at the school to be sold to the children at the noon hour.

A film was chosen for the moving picture program entitled, "The Silent Call," by Strongheart, the wonder dog, to be given January 17 and 18 with a matinee one afternoon.

A sewing day was also planned next week (Thursday) at 10 a. m. to help a needy family. The women will bring lunch, thimble and needle and prepare to spend the day sewing.

GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Jan. 9.— George Yama, who leaves Tuesday for Japan on a visit to his parents, gave a dinner at the Garden Grove hotel Saturday evening to his friends of the Baptist church.

An orchestra composed of Robert Knapp, saxophone; Clarence Smith, cornet; George Yama, violin;
Howard Harper, violin; Claud
Wassum, violin, and Miss Ethel Emerson, piano, gave several selections. Rev. Gage gave a few remarks and several songs were sung by the guests. After a most enjoyable evening the guests departed. Yama will be gone three months.

The following guests were present: Rev. S. W. Gage and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pollins, Mr. and Mrs.
G. L. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. F.

Wassum, Mr. and Mrs. George Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Collins, Mrs. Amy Graves, Mrs. Della Emerson, the Misses Edna Beardsley, Thelma Emerson, Ruth Uveda, Evelith Aldrich, Chassie Hammontree, Lucile Allen and Laura Lehnhardt; Messrs. Robert Knapp, Clarence Smith, Everett Emerson,
Ralph Emerson, Francis Bissitt, Howard Harper, Walter Lehnhardt and Robert Lehnhardt.

The Baptist Missionary circle will hold a meeting Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the church parlors. Subject, "Prayer and Service in the Need of the World's Work."

Birthday Honoree Enjoys Dinner Party With Congenial Group

Celebrating two auspicious events in the J. Raymond Maier family, Mrs. Maier's birthday, and the recent advent of Master Donald Justin Maier, still very new and very tiny, a happy little party was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Miller, 1323 Spurgeon street.

There were twelve to gather around the prettily decorated table, since all the little people of three families, were interested guests also, although the youngest member of the group was content to occupy his bassinet and not demand a place at the table.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Miller in the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hummel, so that those at the table included Mr. and Mrs. Maier and two of their three sons, Raymond and Walter; Mr. and Mrs.
Miller with their sons, Ernest and Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Hummel with Bobbie and the one small girl of the party, little Miss Dorothy Hummel.

Pink carnations, nut-cups and other decorations were used and Mrs. Maier was delighted with a glistering white birthday cake bearing its full complement of pink candles.

Busy Bee Club

Mrs. A. B. Gardner, 1602 North Broadway, will be hostess to members of the Busy Bee club when they meet at her home Thursday afternoon, January 11 at 2 o'clock.

EL MODENA

EL MODENA, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Hayden are home after a trip to Baldy and the Tournament of Roses.

At the Woman's Bazaar class Thursday afternoon eight ladies were absent on account of the funeral of Mrs. Groff, one of the members who passed away at her home in Santa Ana. A comfort was finished and presented to Mrs.
Bronner, who leaves soon to join her husband in his northern passionate. The class met at the home of Mrs. Barnett, who served delicious chocolates as refreshments.

The fourth grade teacher will not be in school for some time yet, not having recovered from an operation. Mrs. Read of Santa Ana, is supplying. The school now has nine teachers and when the new school opens there will be more.

Miss Josephine Brubaker returned to Berkeley Tuesday.
Mrs. Mahoney, who has been seriously ill at her home on Pearl street, is recovering rapidly.

The Brubaker family, the George Short family and several young people from here spent New Year's day at Baldy, visiting Ice House canyon and report a jolly time in the snow, which was a new experience with some of the younger ones.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hodson are now grandfather and grandmother Hodson. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hodson are parents of a seven-pound boy, born Saturday at their home in Orange.

Mrs. Spence is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Whistler.

Alvin Stanfield, the Sunday school secretary and treasurer, has been very sick with "flu."

Mrs. Holway, a member of the Woman's Bazaar class who has just recovered from a long sickness, fell down the steps of the doctor's office and cracked her hip in two places. Dr. Dudley gave immediate relief. Then she was brought home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McMillen of Tustin, were Sunday visitors here.

The Sunday school council will be held this week after the regular prayer meeting, on account of Christian Endeavor services Tuesday night the regular time.

The W. C. T. U. this week will meet at the home of Mrs. Townsend.

Mrs. Josie Bolton arrived home from McArthur, where she spent Christmas and New Year's with her sister, Miss Orpha, who is teaching in high school there.
Mrs. Bolton thoroughly enjoyed the snow, even the face washing which was a new experience with her. Coming home she had another experience—that of having to be strapped in the bus she came out in. All passengers had the same experience. Even the driver was strapped in.

Curio Display Shown by Children From Foreign Fields

A real missionary meeting, with foreign curios and photographs, and real missionary children to give talks on their foreign home, was the delightful privilege of the King's Heralds board of the First Methodist church last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held at the home of Justina Palmer.

The entertaining boys and girls were the children of the Carhart and Bauman families, who have been spending a part of their furlough in Santa Ana and who will be members of a party of seventeen to sail this week for various stations in Chile, South America.
After each of the six children had described some feature of the country or of the missionary work in which their parents are engaged, they sang together in Spanish one of the hymns used in the Chilean church.

After the program the Heralds enjoyed delicious refreshments and played many merry games.

Art Appreciation

A special program of many interesting features will be presented at the regular meeting of the Art Appreciation section at the home of Mrs. F. P. Nickey Thursday afternoon. Since so many different events are scheduled for the afternoon it was deemed expedient by the section leader, Miss Beulah May, to advance the meeting time by half an hour, hence the program will begin promptly at 2 o'clock instead of the usual hour at 2:30.

Torosa Rebekah

Recently elected officers of Tor-osa Rebekah lodge will be installed at the beautiful ceremonial to be held at I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow night at 7:30 when Mrs.
Mary Emily Palmer of Orange with her deputy, Mrs. Barton and an installing staff of twenty-one members will conduct the ceremony.

All members and visiting Rebekahs are cordially urged to be present and at the close of the installation exercises, a social hour will be enjoyed in the banquet room where light refreshments will be served.

Stocks, Markets and Financial News

WALL ST. JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

Crisis In European Affairs Fails to Halt Action On Exchange

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Several weak spots cropped out in today's session on the New York stock exchange but the strength in sterling was so marked that the speculative community had no opportunity to attribute the selling to apprehension over developments abroad.

Stocks were almost uniformly steady in the early trading, following the overnight rise of a full cent in exchange on London. This demonstration in face of the sombre character of European dispatches, emboldened interests sponsoring the constructive side and activities.

But this display subsided around 12 o'clock and prices in the general list fluctuated in aimless fashion in the early afternoon. Pressure on Allied Chemicals, General Asphalt and Brooklyn Rapid Transit was so obviously due to speculative influences affecting these industries that it was not possible by any stretch of the imagination to blame their recessions on continental exchanges.

The market closed lower. Closing prices: U. S. Steel 106, off 1-2; Bethlehem 82 3-4, off 1-8; Baldwin 132, off 1-2; American Locomotive 123 1-2, off 1-2; Pan American 84 1-2, off 1-8; Texas company 48, off 3-4; Studebaker 114, off 1-8; General Motors 14 3-8, off 1-4; May Stores 70 1-2, up 1-2; Retail Stores 72 1-2, off 3-4; Corn Products 125 1-4, off 7-8; Anaconda 49 1-2.

Chicago Live Stock

HOGS—Receipts 68,000; market is steady to 5c lower; top, $7.50. CATTLE—Receipts 12,000; market steady to 25c higher; choice and prime, $12.50 to $12.75. SHEEP—Receipts 20,000; market is weak to steady; lambs $12.00 to $12.50.

Citrus Market

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Eight cars oranges and one car lemons sold today. Orange market 25 and 35 cents lower. Averages range from $2.46 to $4.71. Highest price paid for seven boxes at $7.05. Lemon market 25 cents higher. Averages range from $3.67 to $5.04. Weather, rain and snow; 8 a. m. Temperature 34.

Butter, Eggs, Poultry

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Butter, 50. Eggs, extra 45; case count, 44; pullets, 42. Hens, 24 to 28; broilers, 30. Old ducks, 20; ducklings, 22 to 26. Turkeys, young toms, 33 to 38; hens, 32 to 37; old toms, 31 to 36. Hares, 12 to 16.

TRADING IS ACTIVE ON L. A. MARKETS

(By United Press Leased Wire) LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Trading today was fairly active. Supplies were generally liberal and a few price changes were made.

Apples are moving more freely but with little change in the price. Bunched vegetables are slightly lower under heavy receipts. Celery is scarce and the market firm in sympathy with the carlot shipping market.

Potatoes are slightly higher following advances in carlot prices. Beets and turnips, 25 @ 30. Carrots, 25 cents.

Celery, $2.50 @ $3.25. Potatoes, northern Rivers and Idaho Russets, $1.50 @ $1.70; sweets local Nancy Halls 2 1/2 @ 4. Other unchanged.

NORTHERN POTATOES OPEN FIRM IN S. F.

Idaho Russets Selling from $1.25 to $1.35 for Best Stock

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The potato market is opening with a firmer tone on northern stock. Idaho russets are selling from $1.25 to $1.35 per cwt, indicating a 10-cent advance this week. Practically no change was registered on river potatoes.

There is a little activity on onions with best browns selling from $1.65 to $1.85 per cwt. Extra large stock would probably bring $2 per cwt. Apples also are showing a firmer tone with a cleaning up of stocks in dry storage. Local Newtowns are selling from $1.35 to $1.65 per box, with prospects of higher prices on storage stocks which are about to be withdrawn. Northwestern Spitzenberg apples are selling from $1.75 to $2.25 per box.

Two steamers arriving yesterday brought the following vegetables from the South—1,100 boxes tomatoes, 235 boxes peppers, 100 boxes egg plant, 100 boxes squash. Many of the tomatoes arrived in very bad condition, showing 25 to 50 per cent decay.

There was practically no change on poultry. Dressed turkeys are selling from 34 to 38 cents per pound with a continued preference for medium weight hens noted. Leghorn hens are firm and in light receipt.

Supplies light: Pineapples, pears, cabbage, beans, summer squash, cauliflower, rhubarb, cucumbers, tomatoes, peas, bell peppers.

Supplies liberal: Bananas, apples, oranges, grapefruit, lemons, potatoes, celery, onions, spinach, lettuce egg plant.

Financial Comment

It was only a few years ago that any congressman who felt himself slipping, and had doubts of his ability to retain his seat, immediately could become a popular idol by embarking upon a vigorous campaign of "trust busting."

During this attack on the vested interests of the country, every company of national importance came in for its share of abuse, deserved in some instances, but in most cases merely the victims of a wave of so-called reform which swept the country.

All Companies Hit The results of this attack on big business, generally, were beneficial. While but few large companies possessed the vicious attributes ascribed to all by popular opinion, these few were sufficient to bring down upon each and every one the censure of the people.

Numerous anti-trust laws, the real meaning of which have not yet been fully determined by the courts, were passed, and prosecutions were instituted which dragged in the courts for years.

Not a Ripple In the light of the foregoing it is interesting to note the reception of the news pertaining to the merger of the Armour-Morris packing interests. Aside from speculation among financial men as to the amount of new financing which would be created hardly a ripple.

Before active steps were taken, the plan was presented to the attorney general for his approval or disapproval. Contrary to action which probably would have been taken a few years ago, the federal authorities announced that no action would be taken regarding the merger, but that future steps of the government would depend upon the policy of the new company.

$60,000,000 Issue Events moved rapidly from that time. An issue of $60,000,000 preferred stock was offered to the public, and the same persons who a few years ago were attacking everything which pertained to big business today are eager buyers of these securities.

The people have learned that combination when it eliminates duplication avoids waste, and that waste in any form is a crime.

GRAIN PRICES JUMP ON CHICAGO BOARD

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS The Board of Trustees of the City of Santa Ana offers for sale bonds issued upon the security of the unimproved lands for the waterworks and improvement made as described in Resolution of Intention No. 778 of said city, a portion of East Seventh and West Seventh Streets, open public streets therein.

The aggregate principal of the bonds is $10,542.00, represented by 20 bonds, ten (10) thereof in the denomination of $500.00, nine (9) thereof in the denomination of $50.00, and one (1) in the denomination of $5.00. All of said bonds are dated the 2nd day of January, 1923, payable two (2) bonds a year in each denomination, on the 2nd day of July, except the last year when one bond in the denomination of $500.00 and one bond in the denomination of $50.00 shall be paid, and commencing with the 2nd day of July, 1924.

These bonds bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable on the 1st day of January and July in each year until paid; the first payment of interest to be on the 2nd day of January, 1924. The bonds are issued pursuant to the Improvement Bond Act of 1915.

No satisfactory bids are received or the Board of Trustees determines that the bids received, if any, are not satisfactory as to price or responsibility of the bidder, the Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject all bids received, if any, and readvertise the bonds for sale, or to deliver said bonds to the Contractor in satisfaction of the sum due him upon the assessment and warrant. No bonds will be sold for less than their par value.

Bids will be opened at the hour of 7:30 o'clock a. m. of Monday, January 29th, 1923, at the City Hall, and bids may be filed with the Clerk of said city up to that hour.

Dated January 8th, 1923.

E. L. VEGELY, Clerk of the City of Santa Ana.

ASK COUNCIL LIFT N. MAIN BUILDING BAN

ant failed to appear in City Recorder W. F. Hestman's court last Wednesday, the case was continued one week, or until tomorrow. Hestman said he knew nothing definite as to whether it would be called tomorrow.

When Attorney Winter learned that A. W. Rutan, the property owner on North Main street generally credited with having originated the fight against the Haley building, had been made special city counsel to handle the cases against Mrs. Haley, he said that "it is not justice, American or good policy to permit a man with a private interest to handle a public issue of this character."

BUSH ST. PAVING PROGRAM STILL IN MIDDLE.

The paving program on Bush street, from Washington avenue to its end north of Santa Clara avenue, today was in just as much of a muddle as it ever was, following presentation to the city council last night of a new petition for the improvement of the thoroughfare from Seventeenth street to its north end with asphaltic concrete.

The council has been endeavoring to ascertain the sentiment of the property owners as to whether they want asphaltic concrete or cement concrete pavement. Following declarations at the meeting Monday night of last week, that property owners preferred cement concrete, residents were requested to circulate another petition and present it last night. It came in, but for only a portion of the street, and it was for asphalt.

Action was deferred until the new petition could be checked by the city engineer and hearing on the petition was continued to next Monday night. In the meantime the council will endeavor to determine from the numerous petitions just what type of pavement the owners would like to have.

As the situation stands now it appears that owners between Washington avenue and Seventeenth street prefer cement concrete, while residents in the section north of Seventeenth street prefer black pavement.

FIFTH STREET TO HAVE ORNAMENTAL LIGHTS.

The petition for an ornamental lighting system on Fifth street, west from French street to Shelton street, was granted by the city council. The petition represented 61 per cent of the frontage on the street. A protest, representing 32 per cent, was filed. According to estimates made by A. G. Black, who circulated the petition, the cost of the ornamental system should not be in excess of $66.12 per fifty foot lot. His estimate is based on the cost of the system on North Main street. Light maintenance costs, estimated on the same basis, will be $1.17 per month for a fifty-foot lot.

WILL PREPARE PLANS FOR NEW SEWER LINE.

City Engineer W. G. Knox was directed to prepare plans and specifications for the installation of a sewer line on Artesia street, north from Fifth street to Washington

Estimate Repaving To Cost $75,000 On West Fifth Street

Repaving of West Fifth street from Baker to the city limits will cost $75,000, according to estimates submitted to the city council last night by W. G. Knox, city engineer.

This will cover the cost for a full width pavement from Baker street to the city bridge east of the point where the Pacific Electric tracks cross West Fifth, and an addition of two-foot shoulders and a five-inch concrete slab on top of the present pavement from the bridge west to the city limits. Twin culverts would be provided to replace the bridge.

What proportion of the cost the city will bear under a proposed bond issue will be determined later by the council.

avenue, east on Washington avenue to Flower street, on Hickey street east from Artesia street to Shelton street and on Baker street, north from Hickey street to Seventeenth street. It is proposed to create an assessment district to pay for the improvement.

Resolutions were adopted providing for plans and specifications to be prepared by the city engineer, and for the surveyor-general's office to be authorized to acquire the right of way for the proposed improvement.

A check for $360 from the Pacific company, due as tax on the franchise provided for in Ordinance 414, was received and accepted.

Application of A. L. Cress to establish an electric fixture shop at his residence, 831 South Flower street, was referred to the police commissioner. It was pointed out that the location is outside of the business zone.

The request of Frank B. McConnell and R. B. Hill for permission to erect an advertising sign on top of the Rowley building, Fourth and Main streets, was referred to City Electrician Frank Waller, and Building Inspector W. S. Decker. Stereopticon and screen slides would be used in the proposed advertising scheme.

Permission was given the J. G. Robertson Electric company to hang an electric sign for A. E. Hawley, 305 North Sycamore street.

Approval was given the action of the board of education in selling two lots of the old West Fifth street school property, to Frank G. Freeman for $3,000.

The protest of sixty-two property owners to the installation of an ornamental lighting system on West Fourth street was referred to City Engineer Knox.

A petition for paving West Washington avenue from Broadway to Lowell street with five inches of cement concrete, was referred to Knox.

Hearing of protests on assessments made for the installation of a sewer system on Spurgeon street between Santa Clara avenue to Edgewood road, was continued for one week. Protests were filed by E. P. Stafford and H. L. Mickle.

Frank E. Howell was appointed to the city police force on the recommendation of Police Commissioner J. W. Tubbs.

RESIDENTS PROTEST REMOVAL OF CHURCH

Protest against the proposed location of a church at the corner of Ross and Camille streets filed with the city council last night revealed that the congregation of the First Church of Brethren (Dunkard) is involved in a fight as to the location of the church, now established on the northeast corner of First and Lacy streets. The protest was signed by twenty-six property owners in the vicinity of the first named corner.

In addition, there was a remonstrance from members of the church against removal of the church building from its present location. It was intimated that only a portion of the congregation desires a new location.

STATE DEPUTY RESIGNS

TREATMENT PLANT WILL COST $39,987

That the treatment plant to serve the cities of Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton in eliminating solids from the sewage entering the joint outfall to the ocean will cost $39,987 was revealed last night to the local city council when it opened the one bid received for doing the work. The offer was taken by the Water Works Supply company of Los Angeles. The bid was taken under advisement and will be acted on at a joint meeting of the councils to be held at an early date.

AVIATOR MAKES RECORD

MILAN, Jan. 8.—The aviator Passalova, flying an Italian machine, made what is claimed to be a world's record for speed in a seaplane. He attained an average speed of 277.992 kilometers (172.735 miles an hour) and a maximum speed of 281.250 kilometers (174.660 miles). The previous record, held by a British aviator, was 238 kilometers (147.886 miles).

BABY BONUSES MIGHT SOLVE PROBLEM

LONDON, Jan. 9.—If the United States persists in its embargo upon immigration the only solution to its economic and industrial problem must be a birth rate bonus on babies, Sir Eric Geddes declared today.

Three great problems face America for 1923, Sir Eric said. They are the tariff, labor and the railroads. Concerning the tariff, he said, it seemed beyond dispute that the tariff will cause a rise in prices by limiting free trading with the rest of the world.

"Manufacturers and industrialists of America have told me that there is a severe shortage of labor in America, restricting the development, which is sure to bring about an unhealthy condition in industry. Increased labor supply is necessary to develop the country's great resources, and it appears that if immigration embargo is to be carried out the only solution will be a birth rate bonus on babies."

"The railroad situation seems to be one of great concern. We had much the same conditions in England, but as the result of favorable legislation permitting the reorganization of the roads, the situation is patently more satisfactory. Every day the railroads are advancing to greater prosperity. Railroad labor here is satisfied, although there has been a reduction in wages, and further reductions are in prospect without the probability of strife. Our railroads are settling down to a period of prosperity and better relations with their employees and improved relations with the public."

negotiations represented by the public need. I doubt that the voluntary adjustment would have been possible without the feeling of ultimate power of compulsion of the common good.

"In America your railroad problem is larger and more extensive than ours, but I believe they can benefit by our experiences as we have done by yours. In the past reorganization of our railroads have been carried out voluntarily, but there was always the power of compulsion behind

ARE-BEE No. 2

Spuds In Wednesday, January 10

11:30 a. m.—Everybody Come

Cars Leave Santa Ana 10 A. M.

We laugh at the unfounded rumors regarding Are-Bee No. 1.

We have lost no tools and what we have in the hole is the drill bit at the end of the drill pipe now below 3900 feet, in a wonderful oil sand. But many people know or pretend to know more about our affairs than we do.

We are kept busy taking care of our own business and have no time to talk about the other fellow. Geologists command large salaries and are real busy men, and Dear Reader it is an insult to your intelligence for some of our competitors to tell you of the structure of this field, and to so clearly define the width and breadth of Santa Fe Springs, many of them saying we are in Wildcat territory.

Now it is laughable and those Wise Acres can get big money from the Giant Companies to define the field. Remember UNIT HOLDERS receive first consideration always from REID & BERLINER, and these gentlemen in Syndicate No. 1 were the first to incorporate in an oil investment, that CLAUSE 100% RETURNED TO INVESTORS FIRST, BEFORE ORGANIZERS SHARE.

REMEMBER IN BUYING ARE-BEE UNITS YOU HAVE 20 DAYS TO MAKE INVESTIGATION, AND IF DISSATISFIED, COME BACK, GET YOUR MONEY 100 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

Now seeing is believing. Phone 2053 and we will call for you or come to our office, 520 North Main. We will take you to the field. We go daily at 11 a. m.

NEW 'MUSTACHE THIEF' CLUES ARE HUNTED

Authorities faced a blank wall in their efforts to apprehend the mysterious "Mr. Metcalf," who last Saturday attempted to cash a warrant for $5,322, drawn to E. I. Crook, Los Angeles implement dealer, and who was foiled only by the quick wit of Mrs. Marjory Joplin, deputy county treasurer, who saw through his disguise.

Miss Ruth Short, clerk at the Crook implement works, Los Angeles, yesterday appeared at the auditor's office here, but failed to recognize the handwriting of the signature on the draft. She said that the warrant had never been received at the plant in Los Angeles, and was able to give absolutely no clue as to the possible identity of the mystery man.

Los Angeles post office detectives were endeavoring to trace the letter in which the warrant was contained, to ascertain whether it was purloined before it reached that office. Should it be proved that the missive was stolen from the mails, additional charges will probably be brought, and federal operatives will assist in the effort to run down the swindler.

Last Friday the warrant was mailed to the Los Angeles firm in payment for a tractor purchased by the county. Late Friday afternoon a man who claimed to be Crook, telephoned to the auditor's office, saying that "M. E. Metcalf" would be in Santa Ana the next morning to cash the warrant.

About 10 a. m. Saturday, another call was received from "Crook," saying that Metcalf was on his way, and leaving a message for him.

Metcalf's His Undoing
An hour later "Metcalf" appeared with the warrant, endorsed by him. He wore an overcoat, a cap pulled down over his eyes, and a brown mustache. It was when Mrs. Joplin noticed a bit of theatrical gum, by which the false mustache was fastened to his lip, that she became suspicious. She refused to honor the warrant, until the stranger was further identified.

"Metcalf" left, to secure identification, and promptly disappeared. No trace of him had been discovered up to a late hour today.

With Dr. Mary Armour, he arrived here late yesterday from New Zealand, where the two had been leaders in a prohibition campaign. Dry forces were beaten in the campaign.

"The cards were stacked against us," Johnson said, discussing the defeat.

ORDERS LUXURY LID
BERLIN, Jan. 9.—Berlin has become a 5 o'clock town. In order to show opposition to luxury and to halt waste it has been decreed that all dance halls where champagne and liquors are sold must be closed by 5 p. m.

NIECES GET WATCH. CHAIR AS WOMAN'S WILL IS PROBATED

Bequeathing an armchair to one niece, a musical instrument to another, and portions of her estate to each of seven children of her husband, the last will of the late Jimmie K. Groff, Santa Ana, was filed for probate in superior court here today. E. T. Langley sought letters of administration.

A mortgage for $1,200 was given to Libbie A. Street, or, if she had met the mortgage, she was to receive that amount in cash, the will provided.

A gold watch was to be given to a niece, Edna Donaldson; an arm chair, to another, Lillie Graves, and an organ to Leela Everest. To Libbie Street, was bequeathed a specimen case.

Each of the following children of her late husband were to receive equal portions of one-half of her estate: Daniel, Emma, Delilah, Ella, Jeremiah, Minnie and John. One tenth of all that is left of the other half of the estate, after bills have been paid, will be given to the Training School of the Friends' church of Christian workers at Huntington Park.

FREE MRS. MANNATT ON CHECK CHARGE

At a preliminary hearing before Justice J. B. Cox yesterday, charges of issuing a worthless check, brought against Mrs. Betty Mannatt by Potter Bowles, local automobile agent, were dismissed. Evidence showed that Mrs. Marks had given Bowles a check for an amount including a payment on an automobile purchased on contract, and repairs, and that she had lacked sufficient funds to meet it. The amount lacking, however, was small, it was brought out.

Mrs. Mannatt, in a statement made today, said that rumors to the effect that she may have gone to Mexico following the issuance of the complaint charging her with issuing a worthless check, were utterly without foundation. She said she was in Santa Ana at the time the complaint was issued and that, as soon as she was aware of it, she consulted her attorney, and appeared before Justice Cox.

JACKSON MINE FUND AMOUNTS TO $43,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—A total of $43,000 was contributed from all parts of the country to the fund for relief of families of men who lost their lives in the Argonaut mine disaster, it was announced here today.

The money will be distributed immediately by representatives of the Amateur chamber of commerce, the mayor of Jackson, Calif., and the Red Cross.

KEY MEN MAY STRIKE
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 9.—Prediction of a telegraphers' strike on some of the western railroads unless the Railroad Labor Board acts favorably by Jan. 1 on a petition for a rehearing on the decision of the board which recently reduced the wages of 11,000 operators about $1,500,000 a year, was made here by Edward J. Manton, president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

TALBERT AGAIN NAMED CHIEF OF SOLONS

By unanimous vote of his associates, Thomas B. Talbert, of Huntington Beach, was today again elected chairman of the board of supervisors of Orange county.

It was done as a matter of course. Nobody had thought of opposing Talbert. Talbert was re-elected supervisor from the second district without opposition. He was appointed supervisor in 1909, and was elected at the next election and each succeeding four years since that time.

Following the organization of the new board, routine business was taken up. Board appointments were to be made this afternoon. With the possibility of one officer, no changes are likely to be made. For the first time, George Jeffrey, of Irvine, newly elected supervisor of the fifth district, sat on the board of supervisors this morning. He quickly adjusted himself to the work, and took a part in the proceedings just as though he had been there before. For several weeks past, following his election to the position, Jeffrey has given careful study to the county's affairs.

A pretty bouquet of pink carnations adorned the table of the board of supervisors as they met in their first session of the term. Daniel Patrick, court house janitor, was the honor, it was made known.

RACING DRIVER DIES

BRAWLEY, Jan. 9.—Fred Hackett, racing driver, was fatally injured at the Alamogordo track, near here, when his car turned over just after it had started into second place at the close of the second and speed contest of the day. He died shortly after reaching a local hospital. His mechanic, A. W. Hale, was seriously injured, but will recover.

DELAYS AMNESTY

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 9.—Official promulgation of President Obregon's amnesty decree, approved a week ago by congress, was not given today, and a score of prisoners did not receive the New Year's gift of freedom they thought in store for them.

LEAVES $25,000,000

LONDON, Jan. 9, 3:50 a. m.—A new estimate of the fortune left by Lord Northcliffe is given by the London Daily Express this morning. The amount of the famous publisher's estate is declared to exceed $25,000,000.

YOUNG WILBUR WEDS.

PALO ALTO, Jan. 9.—The engagement was announced yesterday of Blake C. Wilbur, eldest son of President and Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford University, and Miss Mary Caldwell Sloan, Phoenix, Ariz., daughter of Judge Richard E. Sloan, former territorial governor of Arizona.

Both are graduates of Stanford University with the class of 1922. Wilbur is a student of the Stanford Medical School in San Francisco.

The date of the wedding has not been set.

LOANS TO FARMERS SET NEW HIGH MARKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Loans to the farmers from government and private sources have reached the highest sum on record during the past year, it was indicated today in figures issued by Commissioner Charles E. Lobdell of the federal farm loan bureau. The loans through the bureau to farmers during the year are slightly in excess of $200,000,000, while the joint stock of the land banks, operated with private capital have made additional loans to farming interests of $215,000,000.

Of the five-year period that the farm loan bureau system has been in existence, a total of $21,000 loans, aggregating $680,000,000, have been made, the commissioner said.

'PHONE SINS ARE
OF AD CLUB

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 9.—Instances of absurd mistakes which the public make and some of the ways in which subscribers make it difficult to render good service were told at the San Diego Ad club meeting by Mrs. Eva Hawes, chief operator of the Hillcrest telephone office.

"The responsibility for good service by no means rests wholly with the telephone company," said Mrs. Hawes. "The best service can only be achieved by co-operation of both telephone subscriber and telephone employee."

Use Transmitter.
"The simplest and yet one of the most important aids we could have from subscribers would be that of speaking directly into the mouthpiece. The number of people who overlook this obviously necessary practice is amazing. To talk with the mouth six inches away from the transmitter cuts down the volume of sound which enters the mouthpiece 30 to 40 times."

Don't Muffle Voice.
"Enunciation should be clear, not loud. Although Barney Oldfield makes a hit driving a racing car with a big black cigar in his mouth, you cannot use the same system successfully with the telephone. Words that must wedge their way over, around and under a cigar, a pencil, a wad of tobacco or chewing gum, cannot expect to reach the other end of the wire with clearness. It is just as annoying to the operator as it is inconvenient for you."

"Of all wrong numbers rung, 67 per cent are solely the subscriber's fault. Not being sure of a number, most people will trust to memory rather than be annoyed by searching for the number in the directory."

Transposition Frequent.
"Transposing is a mental peculiarity which we find it necessary to combat. A subscriber meaning to call Main 5126 will ask for Main 5162 and yet be absolutely unconscious of the fact that he has reversed the last two digits."

Subscribers frequently get street numbers and telephone numbers mixed, said Mrs. Hawes. The pests of the operator, she said, are the persons who call wrong numbers and then hang up hurriedly, and those who hang up after waiting 10 or 20 seconds for a number.

PROMISES BIG SURPRISE FOR M. & M. MEET

Only members of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association will join the annual meeting and election of officers and banquet at St. Ann's Inn tonight. It was expected that 300 persons would sit at the table. The only woman present will be women members of the association, P. S. Lucas, secretary, said today.

"We have prepared a splendid surprise for tonight," he said. "We have succeeded in obtaining a Chicago man of prominence to entertain the banqueters. We will not divulge his name."

Chapman's five-piece orchestra will supply the music. Leon Eckles will give a song. Charles L. Davis, president of the association, will preside. Many guests from out of town associations, city officials and others will be present. A visitor from Hawaii was expected.

AMERICAN SHIP IS SEIZED BY BRITISH

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The British destroyer Venomous captured an unnamed American ship with a cargo of arms and ammunition off the Irish coast near Castletown Bearhaven, Friday night.

The Venomous, which had been lying in wait following reports of the probable arrival of the cargo of war materials, sighted the ship Friday afternoon.

When the ship was boarded the British forces found a large quantity of contraband material which was seized. The ship was held.

VOTE BOOST IN 1ST NATIONAL STOCK MEANS BUILDING

Bank Here Increases Its Capital from $550,000 to $750,000 at Meet

FINANCE PLAN UP

Method of Providing Fund for Modern Structure Is Outlined

By voting an increase in the capital stock of the First National bank of Santa Ana from $550,000 to $750,000, the stockholders of the First National this morning sanctioned immediate steps for the construction of a modern six-story office building at the southwest corner of Fourth and Main streets, the ground floor to be occupied by the bank. The building will cost between $400,000 and $500,000.

The vote to increase the capital stock of the bank was taken at a special meeting of the stockholders immediately following the annual meeting, at which the old directors of the bank were all re-elected and at which a vote of confidence in the management of the bank was given unanimously. Under the finance plan announced by A. J. Crookshank, president of the bank, as having been agreed upon by the directors, provided the increase in capital stock was made, each stockholder in the First National is to be given until February 9 to take his pro-rata of the increase, which is four-elevenths of a share per share. The directors have fixed the price per share at $200.

This bank will raise through sale $300,000. It is proposed with this amount to extend the bond department of the bank, the plan being to invest $100,000 in that department. The purpose is to form a separate investment company to be owned by the stockholders of the bank, just as the stock of the Farmers and Merchants' Savings bank is owned by the stockholders of the First National.

Crookshank said that the plan is to organize a building company to build and own the bank in the same way, the First National stockholders to be the sole stockholders in the building company. He stated that plans to build the bank were made two years ago, but delays had occurred. The business of the bank has increased between thirty and thirty-five per cent in the past year, and it is imperative, he said, that new quarters be provided. The savings bank will eventually occupy the present quarters of the First National.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National this morning, directors were re-elected as follows:

C. D. Ball, Geo. S. Briggs, A. J. Crookshank, C. S. Crookshank, W. A. Huff, Geo. W. Minter, W. G. Mitchell, C. E. Parker, Chas. A. Riggs, Robert M. Simon, Geo. S. Smith, W. B. Williams, A. F. Zaiser.

Two-thirds of the stock was represented in person or by proxy. J. L. Wheeler, N. A. Beals and H. C. Dawes were tellers.

The directors of the bank organized for the year by re-electing the complete staff or officers as follows:

A. J. Crookshank, president; V. A. Huff, vice-president; Geo. S. Briggs, vice-president; C. S. Crookshank, vice-president; W. B. Williams, cashier; A. F. Zaiser, assistant cashier; J. H. Turner, assistant cashier; F. M. Robinson, assistant cashier; H. L. Hanson, assistant cashier; C. M. Rowland, assistant cashier.

SEEKS COURT WHERE SMALL CLAIMS WILL GET QUICK JUSTICE

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE CARRIE R. THOMAS

BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT
NEA Service Staff Writer

YONKERS, N. Y., Jan. 9.—Justice of the Peace Carrie R. Thomas will go before the state legislature shortly to ask that her job be abolished.

The woman, who was the first in the state to be elected to such an office and whose townspeople gave her the largest vote of any candidate, is willing to forego political distinction if, by so doing, she can better the cause of the common people.

Justice Thomas would have courts of conciliation supersede the office to which she was elected.

"The office of a justice used to be known as the poor man's court," she says, "but I soon discovered that this was not so. Hundreds of persons with small claims were obliged to pass them up because they could not pay the fees."

"Under my plan courts would be established where litigants would be given legal advice without charge. Then, if they still could not settle their differences, they could carry them into the higher courts."

In Politics for Good She'll Do

"These courts of conciliation would be open courts for court paraphernalia is very impressive to certain types of mind. On the bench be one, two or three judges who would serve without pay. These judges would be older lawyers or retired merchants and they would render decisions immediately."

"Nearly all small claims are just ones but the long waits imposed by legal processes frequently work severe hardship on the poor."

Although she has three years of her term yet to serve Justice Thomas is willing to have the office done away with at once so that the new court may be established.

She describes her attitude as characteristic of the women in politics.

"Women do not go into politics for the glory they will get," she says, "but for the good they can accomplish."

CIRCUIT PLAN HOLD SERVICES LURES PLAYER FOR 2 KILLED IN CRASH

Movement Begun In Orange County May Sweep Nation, Is Belief

Friends Pay Last Tribute to Victims of Fatal Auto Accident

To Orange county may come the distinction of having instituted an inter-organization movement among community players' organizations that will sweep the country, became known here today when it was learned that the Los Angeles Community Players' association was desirous of joining similar bodies in Orange county with a view to establishing a circuit.

The player folk of Los Angeles advanced the suggestion following the announcement that community players' organizations in Santa Ana and at Laguna Beach, Anaheim and Fullerton had arranged a series of evenings at which were to be presented one-act plays.

To Promote Co-operation. The presentation of these plans was planned, it was said, to promote the feeling of good fellowship and co-operation among the various organizations, all working for a common cause.

It was stated that Los Angeles had endeavored to establish a circuit in that county, similar to the one which seemed to form here automatically, but failed to achieve the expected results.

Publicity given the proposed meeting here, to be followed by similar meetings in the four communities boasting an established organization of players, reached the Los Angeles body and at once tentative plans were suggested by them that they be allowed to join in the circuit.

Proves Worth of Work.

"The suggestion to the local body seems to be but a further proof of the value of such work in any communities as an influence binding them closer together," declared Edward De Ahna of the Laguna Beach organization. "It is the opinion of the Laguna Players that such a circuit would broaden the scope of our work and draw the communities nearer together."

At the evening, which members of the four Orange county organizations will enjoy in Santa Ana, Thursday, January 18, Laguna will present the one-act allegorical fantasy, "The Slave With Two Faces," directed by Madam Ann Dare. Santa Ana will offer an original skit by Stanley Reed, "Too Much About Paris," directed by George Gerwing, and the other two communities will follow suit with a one-act skit each, the names to be announced later.

FRAMRES ALARMED BY APPROPRIATION CUT; PROTEST AGAINST IT

EL CENTRO, Jan. 9.—Alarmed at the advice brought them by A. C. Hardison, president of the State Farm Bureau Federation, that the appropriations for the department of agriculture will be drastically cut by the new state administration, the bureau today condemned what they termed "false economy" in a resolution favoring continuation of pest inspections at ports of entry into California. The directors representing farm bureaus of seven Southern California counties also voted approval of the proposed one cent gasoline tax.

There will be three musical numbers, given by persons sent here from Pomona for the occasion. These will entertain the new club with some real college fun, it was promised.

Probably 100 Pomona alumni are now residents of Orange county now, it was stated. Under the leadership of Raymond Adkinson, who will be temporary chairman of the business meeting Saturday night, they will affect their organization plans.

Miss Mary Harris, who is arranging transportation, asked that all who had no means of conveyance to the club call her at 1601 W.

Protect Your Health. The Tonic and Laxative Effect of Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets will keep the system in a healthy condition and thus ward off all attacks of Colds, Grip or Influenza. 30c. adv.

Tustin and Santa Ana today joined with sympathetic hands in paying final tribute to the memory of Ralph L. Smith and Miss Pauline Morehouse, who were killed last Friday night when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into the rear of a truck which was standing on the Huntington Beach boulevard near the intersection of the Santa Ana boulevard.

Smith was a Tustin boy, but was living in Santa Ana at the time of the fatal accident. He was the son of Edward Smith and the grandson of H. W. Smith.

Services were conducted for him at the Winbigger Mission Funeral home, this city, at 10 a. m. The Rev. W. C. McDougall, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Tustin, preached the funeral sermon. "When the Mists Have Cleared Away" and "In the Garden" were sung as duets by Mrs. A. E. Carswell and Miss Marjorie Rawlings, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. P. H. Ebell.

The pallbearers were James Utt, G. Deaver, A. Thorman, Don Thompson, Ralph Barker and R. Crumb.

The chapel was crowded with friends of the family. Beautiful floral contributions were numerous.

At 2 p. m., at the same place, friends in large numbers were present to attend the service for Miss Morehouse. A profusion of beautiful floral offerings attested the sympathy of the friends and the popularity of the young woman.

The Rev. Will A. Betts, pastor of the First Methodist church of Santa Ana officiated at the services. He referred briefly to the accident and expressed thoughts that were comforting to the bereaved ones.

Accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Armstrong, Mrs. Thomas Willis Jr., sang sweetly, "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "That Old Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

Mrs. Minnie Woodward, seriously injured in the accident in which Smith and Miss Morehouse were killed, continues to improve, according to reports today from the Community hospital where she is confined.

The coroner's jury at the inquest held late yesterday afternoon returned a verdict absolving W. W. Wells of Huntington Beach, owner of the truck, from blame for the accident after Coroner Charles D. Brown had taken the testimony of witnesses.

NEW FRENCH GUN TO REVOLUTIONIZE WAR

PARIS, Jan. 9.—More powerful than the Big Bertha which shelled Paris from a distance of sixty miles and capable of being used aboard warships built only for 13½-inch guns, a new weapon which, it is believed, will revolutionize the use of artillery in naval warfare, is being studied by the French government experts.

Estimates Reveal Shock. One of the astounding features of the invention due to the labors of two French scientists is that it eliminates the recoil shock of the biggest guns.

Utilization of the newly discovered principle in the armament of naval units would practically nullify the effect of the limitations imposed by the decisions of the Washington armaments conference.

Naturally the details of the invention, the salient feature of which is the Galliot-Pory brake, so-called from the names of the discoverers, are kept a profound secret at the central navy laboratory and at the navy war offices, where the results of the trials have been recorded and await official approval. But enough has been learned to make possible a general description of the principle.

The caliber of naval guns is limited by the Washington treaties 400 millimeters (16 inches). France has not the money necessary for the construction of ships capable of carrying guns of that caliber. To use smaller vessels, such as those built for 13½-inch guns is not to be thought of with the guns of today, because the recoil shock would simply shake the plates of the vessel loose. In this connection, it is estimated that when a 13½-inch gun is fired the recoil shock can be expressed as a force of 4,000,000 horse power acting for 1/100th part of a second.

Heretofore the effect of the recoil has been attenuated by a device permitting the gun to run back on its carriage after the discharge. But here arises a grave problem. Take, for instance, a French seventy-five. The initial speed of the projectile is 1800 feet a second and the gun runs backward its entire length after the discharge. As the recoil shock increases with the initial speed, the weight of the projectile and several other factors, it is easy to see that, with a 16-inch naval gun, firing a projectile hundreds of times heavier than the land shell and with an initial velocity of more than 3000 feet a second, the entire length of the ship would not be enough to provide for the recoil.

S. A. FOLK WITH READY HEARTS SAY PRAYERS

Santa Ana prayed last night in "the spirit of utter sincerity."

Santa Ana prayed with a "ready heart for the open mind; with willingness to learn, and for the spirit of practical service in sacrificial sympathy."

Santa Ana prayed for these ideals in unity because this is Prayer Week in accordance with the plans of the World's Evangelical Alliance.

To hear the message of prayer, profound prayer, religious Santa Ana gathered last night at the First Congregational church. The Rev. E. P. Ryland, pastor of the Mount Hollywood church, delivered the message with eloquent, forceful purpose that brought spontaneous response from his audience.

"All the world is asked to pray tonight for these ideals," he said. "And each night of this prayer week other thoughts will be given the power of combined prayer."

Taking each ideal he had expressed, he stressed its significance by fervent illustration.

"The spirit of utter sincerity," he said, "in devotion to the ideas of the Kingdom, in faith in the white light of Christianity."

"The open mind that sees the other man's point of view, whether in industrial, material or spiritual conviction."

"The spirit of practical service in sacrificial sympathy that has nothing but purity in its giving."

He told of the practical service performed by a great Los Angeles surgeon, who gave his knowledge and skill to readjust the malformed foot of a baby, and then because the mother was poor, charged only a few cents for the service which contributed so much to the life-long happiness of mother and child.

"The very charge of a few cents was part of the surgeon's sacrificial gift that saved the mother's pride," said the speaker.

"God," he cried, "that I might give such service."

And each individual of the congregation echoed the prayer that he, too, could give such service.

Tonight the second night of prayer week will be celebrated at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. Skervington, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hollywood, will direct the prayer.

The meetings begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The program for the remainder of the week was given as follows by the Rev. Perry F. Schrock: Wednesday, First Methodist church, Dr. Raymond C. Brooks, of Pomona college.

Thursday, First Baptist church, the Rev. Mr. Braddon, dean of the School of Christianity, Los Angeles.

Friday, First Christian church, the Rev. A. Ray, pastor of the South Methodist church, Pomona. There will be no service Saturday night.

"When Music, heavenly maid, was young" she may have chosen the isles of Greece as her favorite spot for singing, but attaining years of discretion, she has apparently selected Santa Ana as headquarters, at least for the present period of time, for beginning with tomorrow night and the anticipated appearance of Charles Wakefield Cadman and Princess Tsarina, will come a music festival.

On the following afternoon and evening, the Irish Regimental band will give matinee and evening performance and then with Monday and Tuesday nights of next week will come the Orange County Choral union's production of "The Bohemian Girl."

It seems peculiarly fitting that Charles Wakefield Cadman, the greatest exponent of Americanism in music, should be an honorary member of the Society of American Indians, for it is for his Indian music that the great composer is known in almost every corner of the globe.

Has Musical Ancestors. A Pennsylvanian by birth, Cadman possesses a musical ancestry, as his great grandfather, Samuel Wakefield, was the composer of early sacred music, gave to the world a book on harmony, noted as an authority in its day, and further—

FAIR GROUNDS SITUATION AT CRISIS HERE AS COUNTY AID ASKED

Site Purchase Assistance Is Asked of Board of Supervisors

COMMITTEE IN PLEA

Big Show to Be Held No Matter What Solons May Do, Says Williams

Whether the Orange County Fair association will have thirty-one acres or approximately sixty-two acres for permanent grounds probably will be finally determined late this afternoon by the action that the board of supervisors may take on a request that it finance the purchase of thirty-one acres of the Amling property, comprising the south half of the old fair grounds and situated at the corner of Bristol and Edinger streets.

A committee consisting of A. S. Bradford, Placentia; C. R. Merrifield, Brea; Willard Smith, Villa Park; R. L. Obarr, Huntington Beach; J. R. Schofield, Buena Park, and W. B. Williams and T. E. Stephenson, Santa Ana, was scheduled to appear before the board at 3:30 o'clock to ask that it purchase the property.

The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce has promised to purchase the Roy Vincent tract of approximately thirty acres, comprising the north half of the old fair grounds on South Bristol street, if the supervisors or the Orange County Fair association directors raise funds for purchase of the Amling property.

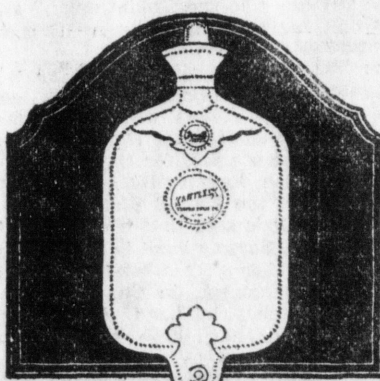

Situation Held Critical. W. B. Williams, cashier of the First National bank and president of the fair association, pointed out, prior to the committee's session with the supervisors, that the situation had reached a critical stage, and that the action of the county governing body possibly would definitely determine whether the association would have a sixty-two-acre site or one of a little more than thirty acres.

He stated that in the event that the supervisors did not agree to purchase the Vincent tract, the 1923 fair would be held on a nominal cost the entire fair grounds tract, which is deemed to be of a size essential to the proper development of the fair in future years.

Williams, however, was emphatic in his statement that if the supervisors did not agree to take action to purchase the Amling tract, the 1923 fair would be held notwithstanding, on the thirty-acre

SOUTHLAND OIL OUTPUT TAKES HUGE JUMP

Oil production in Southern California started off with a 20,000 barrel increase during the first week of the new year, according to figures available today. The increase was about equally divided between the three leading fields—Huntington Beach, Long Beach and Santa Fe Springs.

Long Beach brought in five new wells with production running from 1500 to 2000 barrels, taking first place for new production over the other two fields. Santa Fe Springs ranks second as to new production, having brought in several wells, the best of which was the Jameson Oil company venture, which came in a 1200-barrel well from 3345 feet.

At Huntington Beach the Amalgamated scored again with another deep well producer. On the Fowler property No. 5 stopped drilling at a little over 4600 feet and started off at 2000 barrels 28-gravity oil.

Get Good Well

The Catalina View Oil company, under supervision of the Jameson Oil company, completed a 1000-barrel well at its No. 1, at a depth of 4440 feet. This well is making 28-gravity oil.

The Central Oil company has succeeded in getting its No. 1 back on production after having some water trouble that put the well out of commission for a number of weeks. Central No. 1 is pumping into the sump at 150 to 200 barrels.

Huntington Central No. 2 is now on actual production and looks better than it has ever looked before. The well is making 150 barrels a day.

A 1500-barrel well rewarded the Texas Holding company for re-drilling and deepening its No. 1 to 4500 feet. The Texas Holding producer is making 28-gravity oil and is flowing nicely.

Standard in Lead

The Standard Oil company again has the largest producer at Huntington Beach. On the Huntington B. property No. 14 succeeded to the honor by increasing its flow and producing regularly at 4100 barrels. The record well was completed at 4448. On the same property No. 12 finished at 4580 and started off at 1800 barrels.

The Shell company got a nice deep-well producer when it completed Ashton No. 4, 4924 and brought it in at 2500 barrels, 24-gravity. The well is a record for the Ashton property and is only eighteen feet shallower than the field's world-record deep producer, the Amalgamated Milley-Keck 19.

A study of the showings and their locations found in the Standard Oil company's Farnsworth No. 1 and Pacific No. 1 would seem to lead to the prediction that in less than six months a field will be developed along the short line running from Huntington Beach to Newport, and that the production will be developed in the neighborhood of 3800 feet. Whether or not this has anything to do with the rival of development work in the San Joaquin Hills district is not known, nevertheless there is great interest in the old field and much work has been started recently. Such companies as the H. T. & K. Syndicate, the Laguna Oil association, and the Nu Santa Oil association have resumed drilling on their wells.

The Wucherer-Gray Oil company, drilling a test well in the Irvine Hills, seems to have a chance to develop production. The drilling is now at 4350 and a strong gas pressure has been observed for about 50 feet. At times there are strong colors of oil.

Over-Enthusiastic

About 98 per cent of the so-called oil showings and the wonderful outlook pictured for the Cal-Petro Oil Producers syndicate at Bellflower turned out to be over-enthusiastic propaganda. As a matter of fact, there have been no oil showings of any particular importance.

Work on the test well at Fairview started by the Fairview Oil company a number of months ago is now making splendid progress under the supervision of W. M. Keck. The Keck Drilling company has contracted with the Fairview Oil company to put the well on production. Redrilling is now at 4088 and little difficulty is expected in the completion of the well. The York-Smullin Drilling company has contracted to drill the Fairview's No. 2 on the Goldsmith property. The outlook for a field at Fairview has been very good, and the completion of the two wells will be watched with interest.

Special Tustin Section EXAMINATIONS IN PROGRESS AT SCHOOL

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—The mid-year examinations have been the chief activity at the Tustin grammar school the past few days. One of the largest classes in the history of the school, 35 students, has entered upon the tests, according to District Superintendent C. A. Wise.

The class expects to graduate in June. The tests are being given by the Tustin teachers and the results will be forwarded to the county superintendent of instruction.

The examinations, Mr. Wise declared, are only the usual examinations. The following are the teachers and the subjects they are giving: reading, literature, Mrs. Eleanor Palmer; history, Miss Minnie Johnson; arithmetic, J. C. Lauderdale; English, Miss Nina Weisbach; spelling and penmanship, Miss Clara Enders; geography, Miss Mary Durbin.

Superintendent Wise also announced that the school chapter of the Parent-Teacher association had appropriated $75 from its treasury with which to purchase playground apparatus. Already the school trustees, working with the money and with funds of its own, has arranged for a number of volley ball courts, a slide, and four sets of turning bars. The tennis court is being put into condition and a net has been purchased.

Mr. Wise declared that the school was deeply grateful to the society for the money which had made the additions possible.

STAGE LINE OWNER'S SON IS RUN OVER AND HURT BY CAR SUNDAY

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Millard Foster Jr., son of Millard Foster, owner of the Tustin Stage line, was accidentally run over by his mother late Sunday afternoon, breaking his leg between the knee and the ankle.

STAGE DRIVER QUILTS HIS ROUTE TO TUSTIN

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Thomas Sheddon, who recently returned from his honeymoon, has resigned his position as Tustin stage driver. He will work for the Tustin Mercantile company. Mr. Sheddon was formerly Miss Yvette Linsens' husband of Santa Ana.

SENIOR CLASS PARTY HELD AT BOWMAN HOME

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—A senior class party was held Saturday night at the home of Clarence Bowman. Those present were the Misses Olive LaClair, the class teacher, Gertrude Cawthon, Edna Phelps, Margaret Neal, Nellie Ware, Elizabeth McDougal and Grace Squires and the Messrs. Clarence Bowman, Lyle Forney, Harry Whitney, Fred Miller and Charles Crawford. Mr. James Means, president of the senior class, was ill and could not attend the party.

MRS. LAMBERT IMPROVES

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Mrs. C. C. Lambert has been very ill with bronchitis for the past week. She is now improving rapidly.

site that the Chamber of Commerce has agreed to purchase.

The banker said that it would be a serious oversight were the county solons to overlook the opportunity to get a site of the character in question and at the price quoted.

Tells Cost Difference

He referred also to the vast difference in the expenditure by the county of approximately $36,000 to acquire a fair site of sixty-two acres, and $130,000 and $150,000 that would be involved in the purchase price of other tracts that have been suggested in the vicinity of Anaheim and Orange.

Nels T. Edwards, member from Orange on the supervisory board, and other members of the county board, have said that funds are not now available for taking such an obligation as the county will be asked this afternoon to assume.

It is pointed out, however, that the consideration is such a small sum that possibly the board can arrange some plan whereby it can handle the situation, if a majority of the board is favorable to the project.

Presentation by S. H. Finley, of Santa Ana, representing the first supervisory district on the board, of figures showing that the center of population of Orange County is at the corner of Baker street and Santa Clara avenue, Santa Ana, and that 20,000 persons would be within walking distance of the fair if it were situated on the old fair grounds, while only 1500 would be within walking distance of the suggested grounds between Santa Ana and Anaheim, was freely commented on today as knocking a cocked hat claim that the latter site was near the center of population as it is possible to find a location.

MAN, 106, EXPIRES TWO HOURS BEFORE DUE AT POORHOUSE

PATCHOGUE, N. Y., Jan. 9.—Death came today to Patchogue's oldest resident, Joseph Verant, 106, just two hours before he and his wife, Mary, 97, were to have been removed to the county poor house.

When officers called at the home to take the aged pair away they were met at the door by a son, Joseph, 70, who told them of his father's death. The officials did not disturb the widow.

STUCK BY TRAIN

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—Harry Moore, 67, was probably fatally injured this morning when an inbound Santa Fe train struck him at the Main street crossing and dragged him seventy feet. He apparently did not hear the approaching train.

EXPLOSION AROUSES SLEEPERS AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 9.—The trolley wires on the Pacific Electric line near the plunge on Ocean avenue grounded on one of the tank cars which were being moved by the night shift preparatory for leaving for San Pedro, and caused a loud explosion at 5:15 o'clock this morning.

A second and much lighter report followed, which was caused by the ignition of the gas in one of the empty tank cars.

The trolley line was down for more than a block and fell on the tank train. No damage was done except to the nerves of those living in the immediate vicinity. The opening on the tank car was blown off and hurled into the air.

MEADS VISIT IN SOUTH

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Mead and daughter Dorothy left Monday for a two or three day visit to San Diego. Mr. Mead has been in charge of the Old People's Home. He intends to locate in Alhambra.

There was little real business to come before the meeting. A suggestion that the center help pay for a motion picture machine to be purchased jointly by the extension service and the farm centers was adopted. The center's part of the machine will cost about $15, it was said. Already Costa Mesa and Cypress have agreed to help defray the expense. The machine would be moved from center to center and would show educational and some feature pictures when entertainment is needed.

The main talk of the evening was that of E. F. Wheldon, the secretary of the Orange county farm bureau. He read an article by H. R. O'Brien, "What the Farmer Told Congress," and later explained several of the important points made by the writer.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—There was considerable excitement at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Cook on Walnut street, Saturday, when a fire broke out in the attic. Considerable damage was done to the roof of the house before the fire could be extinguished. Prompt action on the part of the Tustin fire department prevented further damage. The cause was caused by a defect in the flue.

Tustin Brevities

Mrs. W. E. Mahan and daughter Hazel were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Page last Friday.

Mrs. L. E. Allen was hostess for the Ladies' Aid Society Friday.

Mrs. Krieger of Long Beach has been visiting in Tustin for several days.

Miss Olive LaClair and Miss Madge Stephens, members of the high school faculty, journeyed to Los Angeles Saturday.

Mrs. Lilly Kelly of San Diego (living at the home of her brother, Jack Coleman).

Harvey Pitner is building a fine two-story residence on Mitchell avenue. It is an eight-room house with every modern convenience. The estimated cost was $9,000.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Maddox who recently arrived here from Portland, Ore., are constructing a modern four room bungalow on the Tustin Home tract. Mr. and Mrs. Maddox intend to make Tustin their permanent home.

Dudley Kiser is about to complete two five room bungalows on the same tract. Mr. Kiser is building them to sell as homes.

Mr. Kiser also is constructing a five room bungalow on the same tract for Mr. Thery.

The new home of Mr. W. D. Bowman on the Tustin Dale Gardens is practically completed.

Mr. Keever is building a new five room bungalow on Pacific avenue.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Renewal of the old political feud which claimed a score of lives, was seen by police today in the murder of Angelo Demora. Two men lay in wait for Demora and shot him as he stepped from his home.

EDITOR STILL BLAMED

BERKELEY, Jan. 9.—Reinstatement of Ray Chanslor, editor of the Laughing Horse, banned publication of the University of California, was denied today by President David P. Barrows. Chanslor was expelled for published statements made as to the manner of running the university. "I find no reason to alter my previous decision," was the reply of President Barrows to what he termed Chanslor's "impudent" letter.

NAB SMUGGLER SUSPECTS

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 9.—An auto stopped at Oceanside. The lights went bad. Immigration officers Dick and Graham investigated and found within two contraband Chinese. Cloudy Morning, Blackfoot Indian brave and James Murray, white, are held accused of smuggling.

RING CELEBRITIES ARRIVE IN GOTHAM

Tommy Gibbons Latest Mitt Man to Talk of Fray
With Dempsey

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Action in the heavyweight ranks started by Jess Willard looking for trouble will be increased today by the arrival of Tommy Gibbons, the St. Paul heavyweight and challenger of the champion.

Gibbons announced today that he was on his way "to see what all the doings was about in New York" and if there were any fights to be passed out, to get in on one or two.

Tommy usually allows Eddie Kane to do all the talking but he has been "het up" to the conversational stage by his failure to get any action out of his challenges and he had this to say:

"I must get a shot at Dempsey's title this summer. We have challenged him twice and two clubs have made him good offers to meet me, but he hasn't even answered them. When is he going to box? I not only want a Dempsey match but a contest with any of the other contenders.

"The New York boxing commission asked me to fight Bill Brennan, but Floyd Johnson got the match. Brennan wouldn't go into the ring with me with a six ounce pair of gloves and the same holds good for Johnson.

"I'd like to find some way to meet the two if they'd give me a chance."

Will See Rickard.
Gibbons and Kane are heading in to talk to Tex Rickard and to sit in on the Brennan-Johnson match Friday night which is drawing all the celebrities but the champion himself.

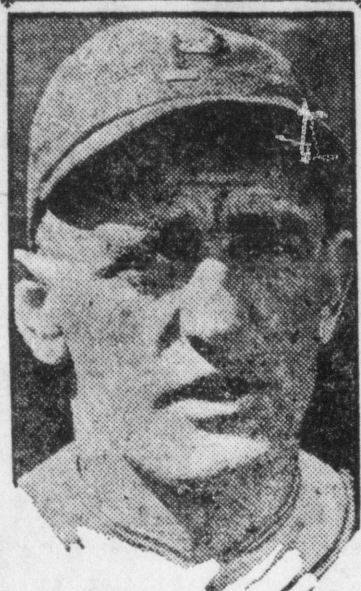

Jess Willard is now in town with a double chin on his huge chest, a waist line like a politician and 288 pounds of flesh. Since he was here the last time the former champion has lost four years.

"Where do they get that stuff that I'm forty years old. I'm only 36 and I've got a birth certificate to show for it," he said.

Willard said he didn't intend to do much talking until he had a chat with Tex Rickard, who is to return to New York tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The McNary bill extending for two years the time for payment of charges owed the government on reclamation projects was passed by the senate today.

Crack Catcher Of Pittsburgh Team
Offered for Sale

WALTER SCHMIDT

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 9.—Walter Schmidt, first-string catcher of the Pittsburgh team, is on the market. Any club that will give Barney Dreyfus a reasonable return for his star catcher can have him.

Schmidt seems to have brought about his own undoing on the Pirates. Last spring, inability to get along with Manager Gibson, then in charge of the Pirates, caused Schmidt to refuse to report. The trouble, it seems, started over the salary question.

When Gibson retired, and was succeeded by Bill McKechnie, the first thing the new manager did was fix things up with Schmidt, and he finished out the season.

Failure of Schmidt to report in the spring forced Pittsburgh to use young catchers. Given the opportunity to work regularly, both recruits, Gooch and Mattox, made good.

Evidently Bill McKechnie is satisfied the club can get along without Schmidt and profit thereby, for he has been placed on the market.

BLINDED BY WOOD BOOZE
ALAMEDA, Jan. 9.—Early today Jack Bannon sat down on the steps of the First Methodist church to await the rising of the sun on New Year's day.

The sun rose, but there was no light for Bannon. Rev. D. O. Colgrove, pastor of the church found him sightlessly groping about. He took him to the emergency hospital, where a bottle of wood alcohol was found in his pocket. Surgeons said he was blinded permanently and may die.

BULLSEYES of BASEBALL

NO. 6: FREAKIEST HOME RUN I EVER SAW

When batters are in a slump they seek every possible means to kill off the so-called jinx that is pursuing them.

Some batters worry terribly when they slump in hitting. Others get mighty peevish. A few take the situation good-naturedly, accepting it as a part of the game, knowing that in the end the breaks are about fifty-fifty.

Eddie Collins is one of those chaps who figure there is a reason for everything. When Collins slumps, he accepts his temporary failure to hit as part of the game.

He goes about his work in his usual businesslike manner. As a rule, failure to hit causes most players to slump in all departments of the game, but not Collins.

Several years ago Collins was in a batting slump that baffled a player every so often. He seemed to be hitting the ball pretty well, but he couldn't get it safe. Always, it seemed, the drive would go directly into the hands of some waiting fielder.

Instead of getting discouraged, Collins accepted the break with a smile, yet kept on trying to get back into his stride.

With two down in the ninth inning of the game I have in mind, Collins came to the bat with the Sox a run behind. As he walked past me on his way to the plate he remarked:

"Well, I have tried every bat in the bag and haven't been able to hit for a week, so I am now going to use this light fungo stick."

He hit the first ball pitched into the right-field bleachers at Chicago. The fact that Collins is anything but a home-run hitter made the feat all the more unusual. The Sox won out in extra innings. That season, Collins made only two home runs.

That apparently broke the slump. The next day Collins got three hits, and kept on getting them the rest of the season.

It certainly was a most extraordinary manner in which to kill off the jinx, as slumps are known in baseball.

CAPTAIN DIES
LONDON, Jan. 9.—The Times announces the death in the workhouse on the Isle of Wight at the age of 81 of Captain Richard Reed of Cowes, who navigated the schooner Cambria in the transatlantic race against the American schooner Dauntless in 1870 and later competed for the America's cup against the American schooner Magic.

NINTH GRADERS WIN FROM 130 POUNDERS

Under the direction of Roy ("Boss") Warren, former Santa Ana high school coach, the ninth grade basketball team from the Junior high school yesterday afternoon trimmed the 130-pound Poly aggregation by the score of 15 to 12. The game was played at the high school courts.

Both Coaches Warren and Harold Knight took advantage of the practice engagement to rush in every available substitute. The high school team used no less than twelve men and the ninth graders sent in nine players.

The team lined up as follows:
High School Pos. Junior High
Lutz, Godwin..... Nava
Gardner..... F..... Borland
Summerville..... White
Bell, Lewis..... C..... Parks, Dawson
Armstrong..... G..... Heard
Finley, Chase..... Mercado

VOTE TO STAGE ANNUAL ORANGE COUNTY TRACK CLASSIC MARCH 31 AT ANAHEIM

The annual Orange county track and field meet will be held this year at Anaheim on March 31. Coaches and representatives from the county high schools definitely decided the date and place for the classic at a meeting held at the Santa Ana high school yesterday afternoon.

At the same time local officials presented to the visiting representatives the present status of plans to hold the Southern California interscholastic track meet here April 28.

Anaheim was awarded the county track meet this season by a unanimous vote of those present. The custom of the county body has been to give each city in the section a chance for the affair and the officials were of the opinion that the Mother Colony's turn came this year.

The event is expected to be large er and more bitterly contested than ever this season. Last year Ray Walker's classy Huntington Beach aggregation not only annexed county honors but cleaned up in the All-Southern, the state meet and at Chicago ran third for the national championship.

County athletic attaches today were considering the advisability of staging the annual All-Southern interscholastic meet at Santa Ana this spring. Seth Van Patten and other Southern California officials told Principal D. K. Hammond that this city could have the affair if it thought a reasonable financial return could be returned to the athletic organization.

Local athletic authorities were of the opinion that the meet will draw well here and from other parts of the county. The question will be decided at a later meeting of the county men.

ASK STATE LAW TO ALLOW LONG BOUTS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9.—Three different boxing bills will be introduced during this session of the state legislature, it was learned today.

Assemblyman Fred Hawes of San Francisco will foster a measure permitting six instead of four round bouts, the sport to be regulated by a parole board consisting of the sheriff, chiefs of police and district attorney.

A limit of fifteen rounds for boxing bouts is included in a bill to be introduced by Assemblyman Harry Morrison of San Francisco. The bill provides for a state commission and provides that ten per cent of the revenue derived be paid to the state.

Still another bill has been prepared by Attorney Sam Shortridge and will be introduced. He anticipates, by some assemblyman. The Shortridge measure would raise the round limit and aim to bring back professional fights, safeguarded and fully supervised.

TWO DELHI BOXERS TO CLASH ON CARD AT VERNON TONIGHT

Two boxers, well known to Delhi fight fans, will clash in the semi-windup event on the Vernon card tonight.

Kid Mexico of Huntington Beach and Tom Kelly, Los Angeles, will have it out for the third time. On the two occasions that the pair battled here Mexico was returned victor. In the first fight many believed Kelly deserved at least a draw. The second battle easily belonged to the Huntington Beach boy who did everything but stop the Los Angeles middleweight.

Boyd Ellis, Delhi promoter, has announced that his next fight card will be staged January 17.

CLASH FOR TITLE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Joe Kirkwood of Australia and MacDonald Smith of San Francisco were to tee off at the San Francisco Golf and Country club links this afternoon to decide the state open championship.

CHAMP LEADS CONTEST.
CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Jimmy Blouin, world's bowling champion, today held an eleven pin lead over Joe Falcario of New York after the first block of their forty game match here. Blouin tallied 2108 pins to Falcario's 2097.

OVER MILLION DIED IN U. S. IN 1921

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—The department of commerce announces that the compilations made by the Bureau of Census show that 1,032,009 deaths occurred in 1921 within the death registration area of continental United States, representing a death rate of 11.6 per 1,000 population as compared with 13.1 in 1920. The rate for 1921 is the lowest rate recorded in any year since the beginning of the annual compilations in 1900.

The death registration area (exclusive of the territory of Hawaii) in 1921 comprised 34 states, the District of Columbia, and 16 cities in non-registration states, with a total estimated population on July 1 of 88,687,602, or 82.3 per cent of the estimated population of the United States.

The death rate from cancer increased from 83.4 per 100,000 in 1920 to 86 in 1921. Some of the other diseases for which the rates increased are diphtheria, typhoid fever, appendicitis, scarlet fever, diabetes, and puerperal fever. The fatalities caused by automobile accidents and injuries show an increase from 10.4 per 100,000 in 1920 to 11.5 in 1921.

A marked decrease is shown in the death rate from tuberculosis, which was 99.4 in 1921 as compared with 114.2 in 1920; also in the death rate from influenza and pneumonia (all forms) which was 99.3 in 1921 against 208.2 in 1920. The rates for measles, bronchitis, nephritis, whooping cough, heart disease, and diarrhea and enteritis also declined.

HEALTH COMES FIRST

in your home, from cellar to roof, what is the most important to convenience and health?

Stop and think—

The furniture, rugs, drapes, paintings? The hardwood floors, interior finish, the decorating?

No, none of these.

It is the plumbing.

Plumbing safeguards the health of the entire household. It is as essential to have GOOD plumbing as it is to carry life or fire insurance. Health officials will vouch for this;
statistics prove it.

Therefore give to the selection of plumbing as great care as is given to the selection of the furnishings and interior decorations of your home.

Attend to it personally.

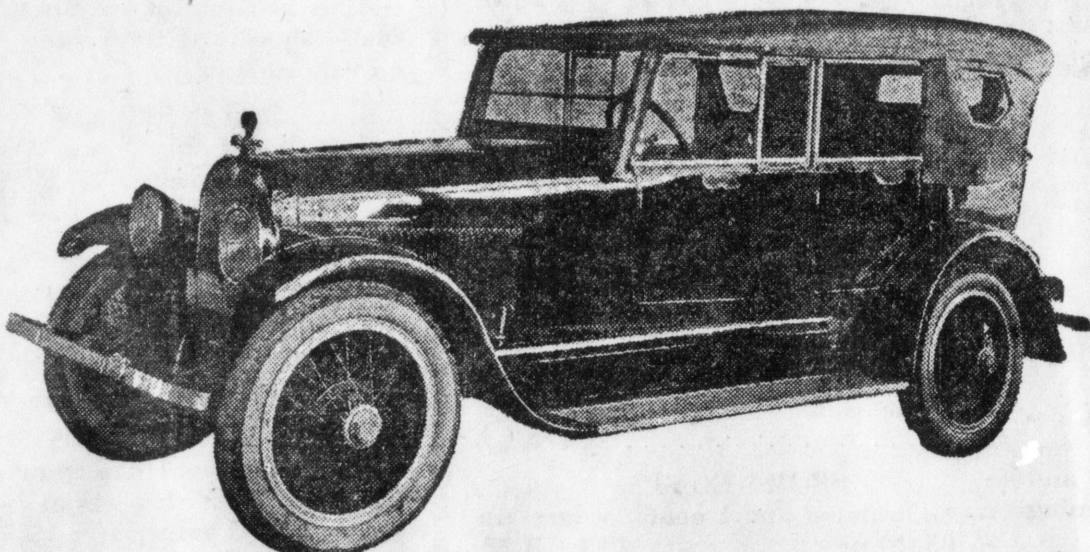

Do not depend upon a middle-

OVER THOUSAND CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 9.—Over one thousand pupils are on the roll at the grammar school and all the classes are over 35 strong. One class has 53 pupils. Miss Ethel Dwyer is the teacher of this class. Two classes have 49 and another 50 pupils. There are 32 teachers to take care of the school children. The attendance is being kept up at the high mark and there is the maximum of efficiency, harmony and co-operation between the principal, teachers, pupils and parents.

The first half of the school year is about closed and while it has been a great success Principal Clark H. Reid says he hopes to make the last half much better in every way. All the teachers are back at their posts and there will be no interruption except the Easter holidays.

An adjustment room has been opened with Mrs. Frances McKelvey and Mrs. Ola H. Pann in charge. This department is for the purpose of helping those pupils in the first and third grades who may be backward in their studies.

Miss Grace Davis, who was called home before the holidays to Coronado, Tex., on account of death in the family, has returned and is teaching the fourth grade again.

Margaret Standlee, first grade teacher, has left for Downey, her home, on account of ill health. Assemblies are held in which pupils take part on Monday at 10:30 and Wednesday at 9 a. m. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Report cards for the second quarter of the first semester will be distributed Friday, January 12. The following week will be given over to promotions. All parents are requested to co-operate with the teachers in seeing that children are ready for their promotions.

Miss Grace Lingstrom, county librarian, was a visitor at the school Tuesday and brought over a fine lot of books and was in conference with Miss Dorothy Helm, the school librarian.

Harlan C. Reid of Denver, Colo., brother of Principal Reid, has been added to the faculty and will probably have charge of Opportunity work. He was special teacher for the boys in the Greeley, Colo., schools.

The basketball team was worsted by the high school basketball team Tuesday, the score being 15 to 16.

The wire screen is up in the tennis courts and it is the finest court in California, says Mr. Reid.

The Petroleum Midway company has added another clerk to the office force owing to the increased volume of business handled through the field office here. J. B. Baxter of Wichita Falls, Tex., is the new addition to the clerical force.

E. W. Kain, who has been operating the hotel at 200 Ocean avenue, has disposed of his interests in it and is building a 48-room hotel at 631 Lake avenue. A portion of the new hotel is expected to be ready for occupancy within the next two weeks.

Mrs. E. F. Goode, mother of Mrs. A. B. Sholley, has been spending a few days at the La Verne attending the Bible conference.

Miss Jessie Marvin and Miss Agnes Briscoe, both Taft school teachers, were the guests of Mrs. Fannie Williams of the Avalon hotel over New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White of Eleventh and Ocean, had as their guests over New Year's Mr. and Mrs. C. Harris and Mrs. May Maris and daughter, Lorena, from Pasadena.

The Woman's club meets Tuesday. This will be the first meeting after the holidays. Mrs. Mary Covina, who was here last year, and gave a book review will be speaker. Miss Ruth Meyer of the high school faculty will sing. Mrs. M. G. Jones is chairman of the entertainment committee.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION FORMS

FULLERTON, Jan. 9.—With the receipt yesterday morning by H. L. Parry, secretary-manager for the newly organized Mutual Building and Loan association of Fullerton, from Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan of a charter for the operation of the company, Parry said that the opening of the institution would be Jan. 15.

Last week it was announced that the opening would be yesterday, but owing to delay in arrival of office fixtures, and a hold up in arrangements for accommodating patrons at 170 West Commonwealth avenue, a postponement was made necessary. Under the terms of the charter received today the new financial firm is capitalized for $1,000,000, $100,000 of which is guarantee capital stock, which is being offered local investors.

LA HABRA WOMEN TO ASK FOR NEW LAWS

BUENA PARK, Jan. 9.—The Buena Park Woman's club met in the community hall on Thursday afternoon with Mesdames McNeal and Little as hostesses. During the business meeting a membership campaign was planned. The club voted to send communications to the legislators from this district concerning their desires on some of the laws coming up at the coming assembly.

PLACENTIA WITHOUT JUSTICE OF PEACE

PLACENTIA, Jan. 9.—Placentia now has no justice of the peace or constable. The territory has been consolidated with Fullerton and will now look to Fullerton for the settlement of all cases in the future. During the two years that Judge W. L. Ricketts held office there was only one case appealed and the judge's decision upheld.

LITERATURE CLASS OF EBELL GATHERS

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Mrs. C. F. Bennett, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Bennett, of El Oro, entertained the Tustin literature class of the Ebells society at her home on Tustin avenue last week. The works of Wallace Irwin and Sara Teasdale were studied. Delicious refreshments were served. The February meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Minnie Childs. The works of Edwin Arlington Robinson and Compton Leith will be studied.

PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Basten and children, and Mrs. Basten's mother, Mrs. A. Evans, and Mr. Evans of Crescent City, have returned from a ten-day visit in Imperial Valley. The men spent their time duck hunting coming home. Mrs. Basten had the misfortune to sprain her ankle and is now confined to the house.

The employees of the General Petroleum company are rejoicing over a raise in wages. Drillers get $3 dollars a day raise, and tool dressers $1.50.

The packing houses are busily engaged in packing navels, or preparing to begin next week. The Placentia Mutual Orange association house started Thursday morning, while the Placentia Packing company started Tuesday.

The Placentia Orange Growers' house started packing Thursday and will start packing Friday. The Mutual house is also shipping lemons.

The price of navels remains about the same. The Exchange quoted prices last week of $2.68 f. o. b. Two weeks ago the price was $2.67. These prices are for all sizes and grades.

Miss Jane Bender's fifth birthday anniversary was the occasion for a party Wednesday afternoon. The kiddies had a lively time playing out in the sunshine until they settled down to partake of the delicious fruit, jelly, and whipped cream with a pretty pink birthday cake, with five candles, served by Mrs. Bender.

The small guests were Donald Haiber, Jack Lemke, Wayne and Maxine Foss, Larry Scott, Maxine Farrell, Clayton Riddleberger, Donald and Genevieve Dunham and Alice and Erna Watts.

Miss Frances McDowell and Lester Mondotte spent a day this week in Long Beach. Supt. Glenn Riddleberger and L. E. Richards spent a part of the holidays on a trip to Coachella Valley.

The Christian Endeavor Union of Orange county is putting on a series of rallies, giving one night to each society in the county. Rev. Harry Anderson, a young evangelist, is to be the speaker, and with him is E. Raymond Couch, a most talented singer and whistler, who is to take charge of the music. The meetings began Tuesday night in Brea. Mr. Couch and Mr. Anderson are being entertained at the home of Charles E. Fuller, Bradford avenue.

PLACENTIA, Jan. 9.—The Mothers' club met at the home of Mrs. Grover Murdock on Thursday. Miss Mackey gave a very interesting address on Mexican Education. At the business session which followed it was decided to meet next Thursday with Mrs. Sam Newnes, when they will try to piece two quilts. It will be an all-day meeting with a potluck dinner. The next regular meeting will be with Mrs. J. P. Monroe, January 13, and will be a social meeting. At the close of the meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Elvy, Mrs. Murdock, served refreshments.

The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Travers on Kramer avenue was the scene of a gay party on Friday evening, when they entertained the friends of their son, William Travers Jr. The house was beautiful with many lights and decorated with polka-dots and English ivy. The evening was spent in playing games and much fun-making. Those present were: Cynthia M. Shepherd, Eleanor Warren, William Fahs, Doris Mather, James Gardiner, Audrey Kirby, Jean M. Dunlap, Faye Lindsey, Adrian Marks, Elizabeth Birkey, Thomas Warren and William and Marjorie Travers. Refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cohoe and daughter, Enid, were at a birthday surprise party, given in honor of Mrs. Calvin Hoover of Orange-thorpe, Friday evening. It was quite a family affair, only relatives being invited. The evening was spent in games and conversation. A buffet lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daniels, Mrs. Mary Slingsby, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kofe, Mr. and Mrs. James Cohoe, Enid Cohoe, Grace Key, Mrs. Barbara Carrow, Gordon Key, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnes and baby Charles, Mrs. Ida Key, Mrs. Sarah Pinkham, Lloyd Colver, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hoover.

MADAM DARE IS COUNTRY CLUB TO SELECT OFFICERS

LAGUNA BEACH, Jan. 9.—Madam Ann Dare, who has so successfully managed and directed several plays for the Community club, has been made director of dramatics for the next three months, and many plans are already in the air for increasing the interest in the Laguna Beach Players, and for enlarging its scope.

Madam Dare in collaboration with Stanley Reed of Santa Ana, is planning an organization which will unite the groups of Community Players of Orange county for mutual benefit and for the exchange of plays.

The Laguna Beach players will initiate the plan by presenting in Santa Ana January 18 and 19, the two one-act plays recently given in Laguna with such great success.

SAN FRANCISCO MAN WEDS OAKLAND GIRL AT BEACH CEREMONY

LAGUNA BEACH, Jan. 9.—Daryl L. Dinwiddie of San Francisco, and Miss Edna Louise Hopkins of Oakland, were married Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. A. H. Burkholder. After a short honeymoon spent in San Diego, they will return to San Francisco, where Mr. Dinwiddie is employed on the San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Ann Mason, who, since her return from New York, has been staying with her sister in Los Angeles, spent Friday and Saturday at her Laguna Beach home.

MONTHLY MEETING OF SOCIAL CIRCLE HELD

TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—The monthly meeting of the Newport social circle was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Marshall. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. White and daughter, Verda; Mrs. Archer, Mrs. Panell and her sister-in-law, Miss Panell; Mrs. and Miss Flaghtery, Mrs. James Warner, Mrs. Melly Bowman, Mrs. Ray Woolwine, Mrs. Charles Royce and Mrs. Chester Kenyon.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Panell.

ORANGE ASSOCIATION AT PLACENTIA MEETS; MEMBERS BANQUETED

PLACENTIA, Jan. 9.—The annual business meeting of the Placentia Mutual Orange association is being held today at 10 o'clock in the packing house. At noon the annual banquet was served at the Round Table club house under the direction of Mrs. Mary Mozier.

MISS BOWMAN ENTERTAINS TUSTIN, Jan. 9.—Miss Frances Bowman celebrated her tenth birthday last Saturday with a delightful party. Those present were Miss Thelma Johnson of Santa Ana, the Misses Kathaleen and Lorna Allen, Marian Crookshank, Carolina and Jean Perrey, Marjorie Arundell, Betty Smith, Edna Cheney, Louis Art, Helen Slabach and Charlotte Vance of Tustin.

The young people spent the afternoon playing games and partaking of the delicious refreshments.

JOLLY PIE SOCIAL Security Benefit Association will entertain all members, visiting members and friends Wednesday evening, Jan. 10, at Modern Woodman Hall, over Reinhaus'. Each lady will take a pie. Dancing and other entertainment.

BOND ELECTION IS FAVORED BY COUNCIL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 9.—The city trustees met at the city hall last evening and passed resolution No. 388 which declares the intention to call a bond election in the immediate future. City Attorney L. W. Blodgett will prepare an ordinance and present it at the meeting next Monday evening. This ordinance will call for a bond issue of $300,000.

Ordinance 256, an ordinance to govern the construction of service stations, was given its first reading. L. E. Hicks and W. L. Crane, engineers for the Standard Oil company, were present and explained the kind of material and construction of the service station company will erect at Sixth and Acacia, assuring the board that the station will meet every requirement of this ordinance.

The question of street lighting was taken up and the street superintendent was instructed to make a survey of the lights required and report Monday evening.

Mrs. Maggie Hallicy was given permission to cut the curb at lot 27 and 28 in the Bedmond tract.

CHARITY WORKER IS DEAD AT FULLERTON

FULLERTON, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Pauline Harker, for many years a resident of Anaheim and for the last five years of Fullerton, died yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Julia Lane, of Fullerton. Mrs. Harker was 82 years old and was one of the pioneer settlers in Orange county and for many years had been active in church and charitable work in the county.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the McAulay undertaking parlors, the Rev. E. J. Statom officiating. Burial will be in the family plot in the Anaheim cemetery.

PIONEER WOMAN OF FULLERTON PASSES

FULLERTON, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Sarah Pinkham, 72 years old, died at her home on North Pomona avenue at 10:30 a. m. yesterday. Mrs. Pinkham had been a resident of Fullerton for 20 years and was a prominent member of the Baptist church. She leaves a son, Gordon Pinkham, who resides here on North Richmond avenue, and a stepson, E. F. Pinkham, of Los Angeles, two sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Slingsby, of West Commonwealth avenue, and Mrs. A. W. Daniels of East Amerige avenue, as well as other sons, Dr. Joseph Pinkham, of Michigan, and George and Frank Pinkham of Exeter, Calif., and many grandchildren.

ing near San Juan Capistrano. Robert Fullerton and Joseph Kleitsch are in San Juan Capistrano painting pictures of the mission, and other things of interest in the town.

Mary Isch, who has been spending her vacation with friends in Glendale, returned home Monday by way of Pasadena where she stopped long enough to witness the Tournament of Roses.

Miss Katherine Isch entertained twenty-five of her Tustin high school friends at a dancing party at her home in Laguna Beach Saturday night. Several of the guests were members of the high school orchestra and furnished the music for the occasion. An unique beach supper was served which was greatly enjoyed and the party was voted one of the jolliest affairs of the Christmas vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Miles and Mrs. Steel of Ontario spent Friday at their beach home, "The Perch."

Plans for escape from Barbados are made by PETER BLOOD and fellow conspirators, who have become slaves in Barbados after conviction on charges of treason by King James of England.

COLONEL BISHOP, owner of Peter Blood, cruelly flogs JEREMY PITT, another of his slaves, for failing to reveal information. Before the escape can be made a Spanish ship captures the town. Blood saves, from probable death by a Spaniard, a girl friend of Arabella Bishop, niece of the colonel. An interesting friendship has been formed by Blood and Arabella.

GO ON WITH THE STORY At the sound of her voice, the girl Mr. Blood had rescued peered up through the gloom.

"Arabella!" she called. "It is I, Mary Traill!"

After a brief pause the door opened. Beyond it in the wide hall stood Miss Arabella, a slim, virginal figure in white mysterious robes, the gleam of a single candle which she carried.

Mr. Blood strode in followed by his distraught companion, who, falling upon Arabella's slender bosom, surrendered herself to a passion of tears. But he wasted no time.

"Whom have you here with you? What servants?" he demanded sharply.

The only male was James, an old negro groom.

"The very man," said Blood. "Bid him get out horses. Then away with you to Spelghtstown, or even farther north, where you will be safe. Here you are in dreadful danger."

The horses came at last—four of them, for in addition to James who was to act as her guide, Miss Bishop had her woman, who was not to be left behind. Mr. Blood lifted the slight weight of Mary Traill to her horse, then turned to say goodbye to Miss Bishop, who was already on the last heard of them was Mary Traill's childlike voice calling back on a quivering note—

"I shall never forget what you did, Mr. Blood. I shall never forget."

CHAPTER IX The Rebels-Convict.

There were no night, the purple gloom of the tropical night descended upon the Caribbean, not more than ten men on guard the Cinco Llagas. The Spanish gunner and his crew—who had no nobly done their duty and insured the easy victory of the day—were sent to the gun-deck upon the expectation that the fresh meats fetched out to them from shore. Above two sentinels only kept vigil, at stem and stern. Two whistles under cover of the darkness came gliding from the wharf, with well-greased rowlocks, to bring up in silence under the great ship's

From the stern gallery still hung the ladder by which Don Diego had descended to the boat that had taken him ashore. The sentry on guard in the stern, coming presently round the gallery, was suddenly confronted by the black shadow of a man standing before him at the head of the ladder.

The wooden taffrail was a low one, and the Spaniard was taken completely by surprise. Save for the splash he made as he struck the water, narrowly missing one of the crowded boats that waited under the counter, not a sound announced his misadventure.

"Whist!" hissed Mr. Blood to his waiting rebels-convict. "Come on, now and without noise." Within five minutes they had swarmed aboard, the entire twenty of them overflowing from that narrow gallery and crouching on the quarter-deck itself. Lights showed the sentry under the great lantern in the prow they saw the black figure of the other sentry, pacing on the forecastle.

Crouching low, they glided, noiseless as shadows, to the quarter-deck rail, and thence slipped without sound down into the waist. Two-thirds of them were armed with muskets, some of which they had found in the overboard's house, and others supplied from the secret hoard that Mr. Blood had so laboriously assembled against the day of escape. The remainder were equipped with knives and cutlasses.

Mr. Blood, himself, crept forward with two companions, leaving the Spaniard in the charge of the Nathaniel Hagthorpe whose sometime commission in the King's navy gave him the best title to that office.

Mr. Blood's absence was brief. When he rejoined his comrades the Spaniard's decks. When their quarters were invaded and they found themselves surrounded by a score of wild, hairy, half-naked men, the Spaniards could not believe their eyes.

And then, from out of this unthought, stepped a slim, tall fellow with light-blue eyes in a tawny face. He addressed them in the purest Castilian.

"You will save yourselves pain and trouble by regarding yourselves my prisoners, and suffering yourselves to be quietly bestowed out of harm's way."

Thereupon those gentlemen of Spain were laced without further trouble beyond a musket prod or two to drop through a scuttle to the deck below.

It was soon after sunrise that the rebel-convict who paced the quarterdeck in Spanish corselet and head-piece, a Spanish musket on his shoulder, announced the approach of a boat. It was Don Diego Espinosa y Valdez coming aboard with four great treasure-chests, containing each twenty-five thousand pieces of eight, the ransom delivered to him at dawn by Governor Steed. He was accompanied by his son, Don Estaban, and by six men who took the oars. Don Diego mounted the ladder and stepped upon the deck, alone, and entirely unsuspecting.

Before he could even look round, and survey this guard drawn up to receive him, a tap over the head with a capstan bar efficiently handled by Hagthorpe put him to sleep without the least fuss.

He was carried away to his cabin, whilst the treasure-chests, handled by the men he had left in the boat, were being hauled to the deck. That being satisfactorily accomplished, Don Estaban and the fellows who had manned the boat came up the ladder, one by one, to be handled with the same quiet efficiency.

With Colonel Bishop at their head, and gout-ridden Governor Steed sitting on the ruins of a wall beside him, the survivors glumly watched the departure of the eight boats containing the weary Spanish ruffians who had glutted themselves with rapine, murder, and violence unspeakable.

The boats pulled away from the shore, with their loads of laughing, jeering Spaniards. They had come midway between the wharf and the ship, when suddenly the air was shaken by the boom of a gun.

They paused at their oars, astounded into silence for a moment. Then speech burst from them like an explosion. They were still cursing when a second shot came to crumple one of the boats into splinters, flinging its crew, dead and living, into the water.

But if it silenced these, it gave tongue, still more angry, vehement, and bewildered to the crews of the other seven boats.

Pump into their middle came a third shot, smashing a second boat with fearful execution. Whilst they discussed and fumed and cursed two more shots came over the water to account for yet a third of their boats.

After the fourth shot, with one accord they went about, or attempted to do so, for before they had accomplished it two more of their boats had been sunk. The three boats that remained headed back for the wharf at speed.

If the Spaniards understood nothing of this forlorn islanders ashore understood still less. They saw the flag of Spain come down from the main-mast of the Cinco Llagas, and the flag of England soar to its empty place.

That the Cinco Llagas was now in friendly hands could no longer be doubted after the proof it had given. But who, the people of Bridgetown asked one another, were the men in possession of her, and whence had they come? It remained to ascertain the precise identity of these mysterious saviors, and do them fitting honor.

Upon this point Governor Steed's condition not permitting him to go in person—sent Colonel Bishop as the Governor's deputy, attended by two officers.

Ranged on either side, athwart the deck, stood a score of men in two well-ordered files, with breasts and backs of steel, polished Spanish morions on their heads, overshadowing their faces, and muskets ordered at their sides.

Colonel Bishop could not be expected to recognize at a glance in these ragged, unkempt scarecrows that but yesterday had been toiling in his plantations. Still less could he be expected to recognize at once the courtly gentleman who advanced to greet him, a lean, graceful gentleman, dressed in the Spanish fashion, all in black with silver lace, a gold-hilted sword dangling beside him from a gold embroidered baldric, a broad castor with a sweeping plume set above carefully curled ringlets of deep black.

"Be welcome aboard, the Cinco Llagas, Colonel, darling," a voice vaguely familiar addressed the planter. "We've made the best of this visit, though it was scarcely yourself we had dared hope to expect. I find myself among friends—old friends of yours, all."

The Colonel stared in stupefaction.

"Peter Blood!" It was an ejaculation of amazement. Satisfaction followed swiftly. "Was it you, then . . . ?"

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Gained Strength, Weight, and Now Doing Own Work by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Marion, Ind.—"I was all run-down, nervous and bent over. I could hardly drag around, let alone do my work. I read some letters in the papers telling what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and I thought I would try it. Then a man told my husband about his wife and what good it had done her and wanted him to have me try it. I took one bottle and could see what it did for me in a week's time, and when I had taken three bottles I had gained both in strength and weight and was doing my own work. I took it before my last baby was born and it helped me so much. I am glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who suffers from female ailments, for I know by experience what it can do. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, also the Liver Pills, too, and think them fine."—Mrs. Wm. Eldridge, 620 E. Grant Street, Marion, Indiana.

A record of nearly fifty years service should convince you of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Tough for Mere Man

—BY BLOSSER

A PUZZLE A DAY

- 1 DOLLS
2 ROLLS
10 RAKES

A man had a toy store, with a sign reading, "Dolls". He sold the store to a baker, who changed one letter in the sign, so it read "Rolls" (fig. 2). The store then changed hands eight times, being owned successively by a bird-dealer, a wood-turner, a shoe-repairer, an auctioneer, a florist, another bird-dealer, another baker, and finally a hardware store. Each owner, in turn, changed one letter in the sign, just as the "Dolls" was changed to "Rolls". The hardware dealer's sign read "Rakes". Can you tell what the 10 different signs said?

Yesterday's answer:
The number 100 may be formed with four nines by writing 99.99 (ninety-nine and nine-ninths).

EVENING SALUTATION

God is law, say the wise; O Soul, and let us rejoice,
For if He thunder by law, the thunder is yet His voice.
Law is God, say some: No God at all, says the fool;
For all we have power to see is a straight staff bent in a pool:
And the ear of man cannot hear, and the eye of man cannot see;
But if we could see and hear, this vision—were it not He?

—Tennyson.

NOT GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

The San Bernardino Sun has not always been conspicuous for political generosity, but during the past decade it has been slowly but surely regenerated in this respect. The Sun always has been and still is conspicuous for its political perspicacity. Therefore we quote and commend its pertinent editorial comment on the action of Governor Stephens in the matter of last-minute appointments. Under the heading, "Not Good Sportsmanship," the Sun says:

"For there is such a thing as that, even in politics, and just now we have in mind and are referring to the action of Governor Stephens in making appointments on the California Railroad Commission. The governor announces four appointments, out of five members on the commission, one of them for six years, two of them for four years and one for two years, thus carrying the control of the commission completely through the four-year term of his successor. In view of all the circumstances, we have more than a little doubt as to whether a retiring governor has the moral right to do anything of that kind, for when the people of the state elected Richardson governor, that ought to carry with it the responsibility for important appointments, and the railroad commission is the most important commission in California, in its relations to the public. It certainly ranks the State Board of Control, which regulates expenditures."

"The Sun has had the kindest feeling for Governor Stephens. It supported him loyally through the primary campaign, and San Bernardino county was one of the few counties which returned a substantial majority for Stephens. However, we cannot but think that he had been badly advised in making these appointments, and if they have been made with any view to affecting the congressional situation in Los Angeles, for it is rumored that if a vacancy occurs, due to the illness of Congressman Osborne, Governor Stephens will be up for consideration, they might develop into a boomerang."

"There is no doubt in our mind but that one and possibly two appointments properly belonged to the retiring governor. There has been a vacancy for months, due to the death of Commissioner Loveland. It ought to have been filled long ago, and nobody could have cavilled. Indeed, there was need for an additional member of the commission on the job. The vacancy created by the resignation of Chester Rowell is in the twilight zone of uncertainty. Rowell could have continued for four years longer as a commissioner, had he cared to do so. If he wished to resign, and give the governor who named him the right to fill the place for the remaining portion of the term, perhaps it was proper, although nobody could have sworn at him if he had placed his resignation in the hands of the incoming instead of the outgoing governor. But to fill the vacancy due just now by expiration of the term of Commissioner Benedict is merely taking advantage of the calendar, and the shifts to prolong the tenure of favored commissioners is politics, and not the best brand, either."

"The Sun would very much have preferred that there had been less politics and more good sportsmanship exhibited in the governor's office on the eve of the executive's retiring."

ARTICLES ON INCOME TAX

Within the next few weeks hundreds of residents of Orange county will make out their income tax reports for the year 1922, and in making out the reports great numbers of questions will come to mind. It would be impossible for these questions all to be answered by the government agent here. It is possible, however, for taxpayers to secure a good general knowledge, with specific advice that may touch their cases, by reading a series of articles for which The Register has arranged.

These articles are to appear on the editorial page of The Register. The first of the articles will appear Wednesday of this week, the second Saturday of this week.

These articles are to be published under the heading, "Stop That Tax Leak; Know Your Rights and Save Money." The writer is Ewell D. Moore, author of a tax manual.

The series is secured for readers of The Register through the All Western Syndicate Newspaper Features, which is the syndicate that distributes "Comment by Chester H. Rowell," published in The Register daily.

CHILDREN'S TEETH

A school dental clinic is urged by a representative of the California Board of Health for the children of Ventura county. In many big cities today pupils are given pretty careful health examinations, accompanied by recommendations for special treatment, and sometimes with free treatment in needy cases. But small towns and rural communities all over the country are greatly in need of such work.

In Ventura county, for example, a partial survey of 1800 pupils disclosed 2500 cavities in first teeth. Many parents do not realize that it is just as important to keep the children's first teeth in good condition as to look after the second set. If cavities and other defects are neglected in the child mouth they are more than likely to result in deformed teeth in the adult mouth, with poor mouths and other bodily ailments besides.

Education in the care of teeth needs to go forward steadily, until every school child is assured a clean and healthy mouth.

THE MENACE OF THE RAT

Some people look at anti-rat propaganda as a kind of joke, and on hearing about the subject are inclined to repeat the ancient slang expression, "Rats." They should be reminded seriously of the history of the rat.

This pest is one of the leading carriers of disease. The "Black Death" that swept across Europe in the fourteenth century and caused the death of 25,000,000 people, was borne by rats. No one can tell when some other terrible scourge will be transmitted through this vermin.

Rats are voracious eaters of food that human beings need. The amount consumed by them is estimated at $9.00 a year for every family of five people. Every householder in Santa Ana should co-operate in one of the progressive tasks of the present time, by setting traps for rats as soon as these beasts appear on his premises.

SAFETY WORK AMONG CHILDREN

The city of St. Louis has done fine work in reducing street accidents among children, and its methods might well be copied in other places big and little. Up to 1919, although a campaign for accident prevention had been promoted in the city, there were about 50 fatalities to children each year, and of course many more cases of injuries. As a result of safety instruction in the schools, there were only 16 such fatalities in 1921.

The children were encouraged to organize safety councils of their own to prevent accidents. One boy who was always taking risks by hopping trucks, was put on a committee to stop that habit. This cured him of this perilous trick, as well as enlisting his co-operation in stopping the practice among others. In this automobile age the perils to children are great, and it needs a special campaign to teach them to care for themselves.

Appeal to Reason Passes

Sacramento Bee.

The disintegration of Socialism, as the United States knew it ten and fifteen years ago, proceeds apace, a milestone to its retrogression having been erected recently in cessation of the publication of The Appeal to Reason, of Girard, Kansas.

For twenty-seven years or so that weekly publication was the Bible of the Socialists scattered all over the nation, subscribed to generously and read religiously.

It stood at the same time as the personification of all that was dangerous and radical and revolutionary to the classes of citizens shocked by its denunciation of governmental and economic systems based upon individualism.

In later years its former mild Socialism took a more communistic and revolutionary tinge, following Eugene Debs' adherence to more extreme ideas. His pen and that of Upton Sinclair were summoned to bolster its falling circulation, but it still sickened and finally died, kicked into its grave with a heavy boot through renunciation of Socialism by its publisher, E. Haldeman-Julius.

Its funeral words read: "I do not believe humanity can be helped by institutional reforms. I am an individualist, not a communist or a collectivist. I believe the improvement of man lies in the man, in the individual and not in the mass."

Socialism today is a class name when loosely used for varying interpretations of Marxian doctrines. The original movement has suffered several schisms, which many people still group together under the original name.

The I. W. W. has grown in strength in the last ten years, absorbing some of the elements which would have ordinarily attached themselves to the Socialists, while the communists have gained others, while those retaining the name are not unified as they were.

The Socialist Party has shown no increase in numbers corresponding to the growth of population, and especially in view of the great increase of voters due to woman suffrage.

In 1912 the votes cast for the candidates of the Democratic Party, the Republican and its offshoot, the Progressive Party, totaled approximately eleven millions, while Eugene Debs polled 897,011 votes.

In the 1920 presidential elections the Republican and Democratic candidates had a total of over twenty-five millions, while Eugene Debs secured only 915,302 votes, a vote proportionately much less than he had eight years before.

The original doctrines of the Socialists in the first decade of this century would be scorned as capitalistic by the communists and the I. W. W. of today.

Those revolutionaries boast more radical theories, relying upon force for their ends instead of the ballot-box.

And so The Appeal to Reason becomes a memory of the past.

Travel School Coming?

Fresno Republican

An old idea in schooling is to be put again into practice on this coast and in much more popular form if certain plans now work out. These are for floating schools, with opportunities for travel united with a graded, common school education. The idea is of course, only possible on a private school plan. It is theoretically possible to develop it to such an extent that ambitious boys, sons of only moderately well to do parents, may so manage their school courses as to take one of these on shipboard, under proper superintendence and with no interference with their regular training.

This is much more than an Oliver Optic fancy. It involves some practical difficulties, but not as many as might be supposed.

The effort to give a boy a chance to do certain things that boys used to "run away" to do, is worth while. Boys too frequently have a sudden break between being coddled by their mothers and being thrown on their own resources by their fathers. A reasonable transition is desirable and a properly organized travel school may some day be a realizable part of it.

She Gets a "Kick" Out of Life

San Francisco Chronicle

Mrs. Mary Ellen Braden, 71-year-old resident of Plumas county, last week took her first ride on a railroad train. She made the trip from Quincy to San Francisco and enjoyed it immensely. She now is looking forward with great anticipation to an exciting street car ride and a thrilling ferry trip across the bay. She has, however, definitely drawn the line at the airplane.

As a baby the aged woman came to Plumas county seventy years ago in a covered wagon, drawn by a team of oxen. That trip was sufficiently thrilling, with attacks by Indians and the hardships incident to overland travel in those days, but Mrs. Braden doesn't remember much about it, inasmuch as she was less than a year old at the time. Her recent trip on the steam railroad, however, provided many a thrill and almost made her regret having put it off for so many years. Some of us who imagine we need all sorts of artificial amusement and find it difficult to get a "kick" out of existence might well profit by her attitude toward life.

Redlands is going right ahead with her new industries. The textile company is doing a fine business, the Sanborn Foods is getting ready to do action. We need to offer all possible attractions as a residence city, but at the same time people who hold places on the payroll are generally desirable citizens. They are industrious and law-abiding. We want more of them also.—Redlands Facts.

You May Lead Him to Water, But--

Wizard's Work

The "absolute zero," lowest degree of cold possible in our universe, has been artificially approached within less than one degree. This is a sensation in the scientific world. It is the work of Prof. Onnes, of Leyden, Holland.

What is the "absolute zero"? Not the same as our thermometer. Scientists use a special thermometer, by which boiling water has a temperature of 373 degrees and ice forms at 273 degrees Centigrade. So 273 degrees colder than ice is "absolute zero."

Interesting, you comment, but what's it good for? The same was asked about 20 years ago when liquid air was brought out as a scientific curiosity or toy. Today the production of liquid air is a big industry, furnishing argon for filling electric lamps and providing oxygen for engineering and medical uses.

No discovery, however trifling it may seem at the time, is really unimportant. Once discovered, the human mind soon puts it to use in the general process of steadily raising our standard of living.

Peculiar possibility looms: If Prof. Onnes can get one more degree of cold and reach "absolute zero," whatever is subjected to the cold will be completely motionless. Matter might then behave in extraordinary manner, for at the "absolute zero" all movement by the molecules would stop. Add one degree of heat, molecules begin moving, the principle of life (motion) appears.

When we reach "absolute zero" in our laboratories, we may find some mysterious secret of life within grasp.

By way of contrast, other scientists point out that they now can measure, by electrical means, a temperature up to more than 3000 degrees above zero.

Thus man now is able to measure, with absolute accuracy, any temperature over a range of about 3300 degrees. It's a revelation of the skill and knowledge acquired by man. And yet it's only the faint beginning of what people will do in the future.

UNJUSTIFIABLE

Not long ago, says a Virginia woman, she was hurriedly finishing certain work neglected the day before when an old negro butler, Thomas, chanced to pass by.

"Miss Clara! Miss Clara!" he remonstrated. "Yo' shore is brakin' de Sabbath day!"

"But, Uncle Thomas," she argued, "the ox is in the ditch, and—"

"Miss Clara," he broke in, "dat old ox ain't nothin' but a stumblin' block fo' folks to hide behind! De Scripture do say if he is in de ditch to pull him out; but it don't nowhere say to push him in on Sat'day jest so as to have de chanct to pull him out on Sunday."—Japan Advertiser.

Tom Sims Says

It is easy to go to sleep when it is time to get up. Only thing worse than being bothered is being ignored. A plumber's pipe dream is a dream of a broken pipe. Hunters say smokeless powder is stronger, so are smokeless cigars.

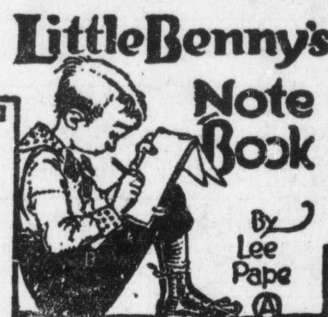

Among the wild movements on foot are the 1923 dances. Generally speaking, too many people are generally speaking. The nice thing about being a man is you don't have to kiss somebody that needs a shave.

It isn't what a man stands for as much as what he helps with. You hear about people laughing at their own expense, but it is hard to do if you are broke.

Talking in your sleep isn't as bad as sleeping in your talk. That great silence you hear is the kids glad they are back at school.

Jazz music will not stop until boiler-making pays better. Trouble with a man who is a wonder at talking is wonders never cease.

Every now and then a fountain pen tries to live up to its name by spilling all over the paper.

THE BEE

1

Wherever there is a flower
You're liable to find a bee,
O its panicle to be stung by one
But farsee to be stung by 3.

A bee always buzzes when it flies
Thus showing when its coming near,
And also when its leaving,
Which most people would drather hear.

3

If you see a bee setting on a flower
And no bee setting on another one,
Even if you like the first one best, You'll conconvertize by picking the other one.

And this proves the strong are mitey
And its always the weak who suffer,
And often wen you get a punch
in the snoot
You wouldent if you looked a little tuffer.

O I wouldent want to be a bee
And spend all day making honey Jest so strangers can enjoy the taist
Or sell it and keep all the money.

Moonlight Photo

"It takes only some experimenting and some courage to get a real good moonlight picture," says Dare McMullin, a Girl Scout in The American Girl.

"I took one of a moonlit lake in the Sierras at 8 o'clock at night, with a vest pocket kodak, perched by its tiny leg on a stump, levelled straight at the rising moon and exposed for ten minutes. There was a camp fire behind the kodak. All the photographer did was to watch the time, and see that nobody crossed in front of the lens. Naturally enough the film showed an oblong moon, like a vertical sausage balloon, since the moon is a very unoblong subject about keeping still. But a resourceful developer painted a tiny orange spot on the film for the second print he made, and the effect is that same enchanting blur of light that the real moon shows when you look into it. Such a picture enlarged seems more than any daylight picture to bring you the very whiff of the pines, and keep for you the hour which, of all your camp hours, you love the best."

Some Odds and Ends

MORBID

Walter Masterson, carpenter, erects a high board fence around the Phillips farm, scene of the Hall-Mills murder.

He will charge two-bits admission to the steady stream of motorists, continuing to arrive with curious eyes from a score of states.

A New York "freak museum" pays $250 for an old piano and horse-hair settee from the Phillips farmhouse.

Ponder this, to learn much about human nature.

EXHAUSTED

President Harding, greeting East-ern Star and other visitors, shakes hands with 1450 people in one day.

Go out and work a pump handle that many times and you'll wonder how Harding stands it.

Keep it up, day after day, month in and month out, and your desire to be president may evaporate.

We nominate President Harding for president of the League Against Hand Shaking, which is considering a gold medal for the burlesque comedian who originated the saying, "Give it to him, he's saving them."

RADIUM

Radium, most mysterious substance in the universe, drops to the lowest price ever. Seventy thousand dollars buys as much radium as $120,000 bought six months ago. Important news for the hundreds of thousands with cancer.

It is disheartening that even radium, the marvel healer, is subject to the same law of supply and demand as everyday necessities. The price is down because supply exceeds buying—though the total supply of pure radium in the world is not much more than five ounces.

EATING

A steer is more careful of his stomach than even a college student well informed about diet. So says Dr. Francis G. Benedict, nutrition expert, addressing National Academy of Sciences.

The old saying, that "most of us dig our graves with our teeth," is worth repeating every time we sit down at the dining table or lunch counter.

Sharing

Sixty families will try out "ideal communism" in the Arrow River Valley of Canada. Land will be equally divided, crops shared so that no one will get more or less than the rest. Other work, such as running the sawmill, will be shared. All property except clothing and household goods will be owned and used jointly by the community.

This experiment will work until the lazy and shiftless show up in their true colors and begin wanting the others to support them. In 60 families, how many will get "winded" quickly? A conservative estimate would be a third.

Fiction

There are no dull subjects in this world to write about, but the world is full of mighty dull writers, says George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

Young writers, seeking a market, can save themselves a lot of time and effort by knowing that this is the acid test in the general magazine business: "Is it interesting?" All other qualifications are secondary. That's why so many badly written short stories get into print. They're interesting, in the opinion of the editors—who average just as dull as the writers and readers.

FOR PNEUMATIC TIRES

Editor, Register: I see in a late date of The Register, that the Associated Chambers of Commerce had passed a resolution to the effect that the next legislature would be asked to pass a bill requiring all automobiles and trucks to use pneumatic tires. I am heartily in favor of such a law and everybody should be who cares for our paved roads.

It is the height of foolishness to keep on voting bonds to pave roads with and allow the hard tired trucks to knock them to pieces as fast as the taxpayers can build them.

The pneumatic tire is not an impossibility for the biggest truck and I hardly think the expense of the use of such tires would be very much more, if any more, than the hard tire, and our roads would be saved.

Can anybody give a good reason why a man or company should operate a truck for profit on roads that the public has made, with loads, and hard tires that will smash up an ordinary pavement such as the people can afford to make in a few days? I have been going to and from my ranch across the river nearly every day for the last two years and I have seen a pretty fair pavement on West Fifth and West Fourth street go to pieces in a week from the use of hard tires and big trucks. The trucks are useful and have come to stay and the only way to keep them in use and to save the roads is to require all automobiles and trucks to use pneumatic tires.

IN THE LONG AGO

From the Register Files

JANUARY 9, 1909.

E. A. Shindler was elected captain of Company E, N. G. C., of Anaheim. The election was in charge of Major L. L. Vestal, Santa Ana.

Searchers are trying to locate A. R. Alvord, aged 79, who wandered away from the home of his daughter, W. E. Barnum, Orange. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pease entertained at progressive whist. Guests included Miss May Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Al Marker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNaught, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor.

Fred Rohrs, M. Nisson and John Dunstan have been appointed members of the Tri-County Reforestation committee. The committee is using its efforts to have the name of the Angeles forest changed to Roosevelt.

Seventy-five Odd Fellows and Rebekahs put on the work at Abbeim. The teams were headed by A. C. Hanaker and Mrs. Flowers. Mrs. Susan Abbott, relative of David Hewes, died at the Hewes ranch at El Modena.

John Richards, convicted of embezzlement from the Edison company, was sentenced to two and a half years in San Quentin.

About four-tenths of an inch of rain fell last night.

Let it Call

By Berton Braley

The Arctic calls with vigor,
"Adventure, come forth!
Come, tempt the frowning rigor
Of all the frozen North;
Amid my tempest tragic,
Amid my crashing furies,
There is a wondrous magic Only the Northland knows."

"Beneath the Borealis,
Where lie the ice-bound ships,
I hold a frozen chalice
Against the brave man's lips.
No draught for those weak-hearted
Is this, I hold aloft,
My icy wastes, uncharted,
Soon crush the will that's soft."

The Northland's call—I hear it,
It tingles in my ears,
But fails to rouse my spirit
With either hopes or fears,
Let those whose souls are greater Seek where the Pole is at,
I'll hug the radiator
In my steam-heated flat!

Adventures of the Twins

The Turtomobile

By Olive Roberts Barton

This is what Torty Turtle did in Dreamland!

What's that, my dears? You are asking how Torty got there when he's so very slow!

Simple as A, B, C, or rather X, Y, Z. When he was snoring away through his polyparrot beak down under the mud in the bottom of Ripple Creek, not far from the place Phil Frog had been snoozing before he went to Dreamland—well, when Torty was snoring away, Nancy and Nick in their Green Shoes, and Dusty Coat the fairy sandman, with his bag bag, came along and found him and sprinkled him with magic dust. Then, ker-flop, ker-flop, ker-flop!

A little trap-door opened right under Torty and after about fifty somersaults he landed right in the middle of Dreamland.
